Nixon Slated For Cleveland Talk Tonight

'GOP Nominee Will Be Accompanied By Wife In Ohio Bid

CLEVELAND (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon flies into Cleveland from Nashville, Tenn. During this evening's rush hour for a five-hour visit. He will deliver a half-hour campaign speech in Public Hall.

Twice the usual number of policemen will be on duty downtown to handle anticipated traffic jams as the Republican presidential nominee and his wife Pat, make a motorcade trip from Lakefront Airport south on East Ninth Street and west on Euclid Avenue to Public Square.

The Nixons' plane is due in at 5 p.m. and they are scheduled to reach public square 45 minutes later.

Mingled with the thousands of homeward-bound workers in the square will be additional thousands brought into the downtown area by buses which the local GOP organizations have chartered.

Nixon made his first direct bid for Ohio's 25 electoral votes last Saturday with a tour of Akron, Canton and Mansfield. It was disclosed Wednesday that he plans to make a campaign stop in Columbus at a later date.

At 10 p.m. Nixon leaves Cleveland Hopkins airport for Washington where Friday night he meets Democratic presidential candidate John F. Kennedy in the second of their nationally televised debates.

In Public Hall U.S. Rep. Frances P. Bolton of the 22nd Ohio district will introduce the Vice President after a program in which she and the other three Republican nominees for Congress from the Cleveland area make two-minute talks. The other candidates are Leonard G. Richter, 20th district; W.O. Walker, 21st district; and Rep. William E. Minshall, 23rd.

Former U.S. Sen. John W. Bricker and Ray C. Bliss, state GOP chairman, will be among 300 seated on the state during the speech. Others accorded seats of honor include Ted. W. Brown, Ohio secretary of state; James A. Rhodes, state auditor; former Gov. C. William O'Neill, a candidate for the Ohio Supreme Court.

Welding Supply Firm Entered By Intruders

There was no apparent loss in a burglary at Herdman Bros. Welding Supply Co., 218 Baum St., sometime Wednesday night or early today, police said.

The concern is operated by Elvin Herdman of Steubenville, who told police the building was entered between 5 p. m. yesterday and 8:30 this morning. A check is continuing to determine if there was any loss, officers said.

Entry was gained by forcing the front door, officers said. Pressure on the door near the lock ripped the door frame and pulled the lock catch from it, police said. There was no attempt to ransack the office or open the safe, officers reported.

It's Drizzling In Pittsburgh, But Game's On

PITTSBURGH (AP) — It began drizzling again in midmorning today after off-and-on rains during the night. Commissioner Ford C. Frick ordered the tarpaulin replaced at Forbes Field to insure a firm footing for the second game of the World Series between the Pittsburgh Pirates and the New York Yankees.

Frick said batting practice might be delayed but that all his information indicated the storm would move out of the Pittsburgh area well before the scheduled start of the game at 1 p. m. (EDT).

Meanwhile the happy Pittsburgh Pirates looked to Bob Friend, their 18-game winner, to tame the New York Yankees today and give them a 2-0 lead in baseball's World Series.

The National League champions beat the Yankees 6-4 in the first game of the fall classic Wednesday. Relief ace Elroy Face replaced starter Vern Law and stifled Yankee threats in the last two innings.

In an effort to even things at 1-1, the American League champs planned to start Bob Turley, a right-hander like Friend. Turley won only nine games during the regular season, but he is a World Series veteran. It will be Friend's first series start.

"They outfielded us and outpitched us," said Casey Stengel, 70, Yankee manager who has won 10 American League pennants in his 12 years with the Yankees. "I don't say they'll do it today."

Danny Murtaugh, the Bucs' manager who hopes to bring Pittsburgh its first world championship in 35 years, declared Bill Virdon's great catch of Yogi Berra's long drive in the fourth inning with two on and none out was the turning point of the game.

Navy Cranes Hoist Part Of Crashed Plane

BOSTON (AP)—Two Navy floating cranes today begin raising the forward section of the Eastern Airlines Electra that carried 61 persons to their deaths in a takeoff plunge into the harbor Tuesday night.

Federal Aviation Administrator E. R. Quesada suggested Wednesday starlings sucked into the air intakes may have disabled one or more of the four turbine-propeller engines. More than a hundred dead birds were found on the runway.

Only 11 of the 72 aboard the plane, bound for Philadelphia, Charlotte, N.C., Greenville, S.C., and Atlanta, survived the shattering crash. All were injured, six on the danger list at hospitals.

The pilot, co-pilot and engineer died but two stewardesses escaped serious injury.

Fifty-seven bodies have been recovered, all identified but one, a young Negro woman. Four persons are missing.

Two divers, James Walton and Jim Cahill, said the main section of fuselage, in 35 feet of water, looked "as though it had been ripped open with a can opener."

Pickets Close GE's Plant At Schenectady

Violence Flares At Syracuse Facility In Strike Against Firm

SCHENECTADY, N.Y. (AP) — General Electric's home plant was closed off by massed pickets today and violence erupted at a GE plant in Syracuse for the third day.

A company spokesman here said no one was able to enter the Schenectady plant today, where 20,000 persons are employed.

The pickets are members of the International Union of Electrical Workers (IUE), which struck GE nationwide Monday.

The Schenectady IUE local originally had voted against the strike. But after other GE plants were struck, the union conducted a new vote and decided to strike today.

In Syracuse, sheriffs deputies used fire hoses and clubs to force angry pickets away from the main gate of electronics park. At least three persons were hurt and a union organizer was arrested.

The parkway leading into the park was blocked by pickets cars.

Observers said the eruption was the most violent so far at Syracuse.

At one point, massed pickets rushed the deputies so violently that the deputies dropped one of the 2½-inch hoses they had been using.

After that incident, the pickets retired, leaving only a token force.

Raymond Baird, a vice president of the Syracuse IUE local was hospitalized with head injuries.

A union official complained that the use of clubs by deputies was "unnecessary vicious."

GE said approximately 1,600 union production workers entered electronics park today, about 200 more than did Wednesday.

The union repeatedly has said the company's figures were inflated.

The number of pickets at Schenectady could not be determined. The union had planned to mass 4,500. Four pickets were arrested.

Federal mediators plan to sit in on GE-IUE talks in New York City Friday in an effort to end the strike. Whether there would be a meeting today was uncertain.

The GE plant in Schenectady had announced that it expectes its

Neutralists Give Up

U.N. Campaign For Ike, Khrushchev Parley Fails

U.S. Seeks Peace With Neutralists

Looking At Damage From Hard Fight In U.N. Assembly

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —Dismayed U.S. diplomats today took stock of the damage from a bruising fight in the U.N. General Assembly and pushed to heal rifts with angered neutrals.

The United States finally won early this morning—through a parliamentary maneuver — its battle against the neutrals' move for an Assembly resolution urging a meeting between President Eisenhower and Soviet Premier Khrushchev.

But the long night contest was nip and tuck, compared with lopsided U.S. majorities in other days, and it made hopping mad such neutralist chiefs as India's Prime Minister Nehru whose influence the United States wants on its side in the expanding world organization.

The nine-vote Communist bloc could have swung the margin to the neutrals, but Khrushchev doesn't want to meet Eisenhower either. So instead the Reds abstained, while Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko watched in noticeable pleasure as the United States fought the neutrals.

American officials, who had maneuvered vigorously all week to avoid Eisenhower's being put in the embarrassing position of saying "no" to a U.N. mandate, were surprised and displeased with the results of the showdown.

Among the African nations, whose 24 members are the largest group in the U.N., only one—right-wing South Africa—voted on the U.S. side on the key vote.

In the Asian group of 21, only seven voted with the United States.

Even among the 20 Latin American neighbors the support was less than solid. Only 13 voted with the United States.

U.S. strategists hoped to repair the damage by stepping up backstage efforts to woo the neutrals and persuade them U.S. policy is not against theirs.

One initial move supporting this was Eisenhower's White House date today with Indonesian President Sukarno. Other contacts were planned by Secretary of State Christian A. Herter and other top U. S. delegates at the U. N.

Typhoon Kit Slams Central Philippines

MANILA (AP) — Typhoon Kit hurled 90 mile-an-hour winds at the central Philippines today, capsizing boats and wrecking crops and homes.

The constabulary reported several fishing and small passenger boats overturned, but had no immediate word of casualties.

Unconfirmed reports said 14 people died in scattered mishaps before the full fury of the typhoon was felt.

3 Casualties Reported

Invasion By U.S. Force Claimed In Cuban Report

HAVANA (AP)—A platoon-sized invasion force from the United States has landed in east Cuba and headed into the mountains after suffering three casualties in a brush with militiamen, the Armed Forces Ministry announced today.

A ministry communique said the landing was made by 27 men, including three Americans, "at dawn yesterday" on a bay midway between the towns of Baracoa and Moa, the site of a nationalized American mining company.

The area is in Oriente Province, the revolutionary stamping grounds of Prime Minister Fidel Castro.

The communique was undated, and it was not specified whether the reported landing was Tuesday or Wednesday. The battle apparently occurred a few hours after the force touched shore.

The commander of the invasion force was killed and two of the men—one wounded — were captured, the ministry said.

The commander was identified as Armentino Feria, a follower of Cuban ex-Sen. Rolando Masferrer. Masferrer, a wealthy backer of the deposed President Fulgencio Batista, is a refugee in the United States.

The remainder of the invading group, with 50 Cuban farmers as hostages, was reported to have reached an area called Nuevo Mundo with Castro forces, including militiamen and local supporters, in pursuit.

The invaders landed at dawn, the communique said. It reported they carried with them a large American flag, three pack mules, one U. S. Army uniform, and various documents, all of which were seized by the militiamen.

"The remainder of the group cannot escape the revolutionary army and loyal militiamen," the communique said. "Our government is fully aware of this open activity by which imperialism is attempting to promote counter-revolutionary activity and acts of terrorism."

For months Castro has been predicting an invasion. This incident, as outlined by the Armed Forces Ministry, appears to be the first confirmation that opposition forces are ready to move men into Cuba to assist the insurgents already fighting in the Escambray Mountains in the center of the island.

Rumors that Masferrer's supporters planned a landing have circulated here for weeks. One version said 50 well-armed men had succeeded in landing in central Cuba and joined the other insurgents—estimated up to 1,000 men—in the mountains.

The communique named two prisoners. It said these are Enrique Torres Perez, who was wounded, and Arturo Alverez, described as a Batista ex-soldier sought for the assassination of three persons during Castro's war against Batista.

"Circles which direct policies of the United States government" were blamed for the invasion. The communique said that "Cuba's revolutionary government is gathering evidence of their activities."

The survivors of the band are apparently seeking to reach the higher mountains of eastern Cuba before Castro forces are concentrated to cut them off.

Resolution Urging Talks Withdrawn

Australian Move For Big 4 Meeting Also Turned Down

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —The drive in the U.N. Assembly to bring President Eisenhower and Premier Khrushchev to the conference table finally failed early today, and five neutralist nations withdrew their resolution urging a U. S.-Soviet summit meeting.

Both Eisenhower and Khrushchev had made clear they did not want to meet. The neutralists gave up after the Assembly voted to delete specific reference to the two government heads from the resolution and call merely for the United States and the Soviet Union to renew diplomatic contacts.

Indian Prime Minister Nehru, one of the resolution's prime movers, pointed out that diplomatic contacts between the United States and the Soviet Union had not been broken off and the resolution as amended was thus meaningless.

The five sponsors were India, Indonesia, Ghana, the United Arab Republic and Yugoslavia.

American observers were relieved by the action. Eisenhower had indicated strongly that he did not want to see Khrushchev. However, diplomats felt that it would have been difficult for the President to refuse a U.N. request—especially if a large group of nations had voted for it.

Earlier, the Assembly also voted down an Australian amendment calling for a summit conference of the leaders of the United States, the Soviet Union, Britain and France. The roll call was 45 against, 5 for, with 44 abstentions.

The vote deleting the specific reference in the neutralist resolution to the U. S. President and the Soviet premier was 41 in favor of the reference and 37 against, with 17 abstentions. The "yeas" thus were less than the two-thirds necessary for adoption.

South Africa Seen Leaving British Rule

Diminishing Lead Of Anti-Republic Voters Points Way

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — A diminishnig anti-republican lead indicated today that South Africans have voted to cut their country loose from the British crown.

The forces opposing Nationalist Prime Minister Hendrix Verwoerd's plan to turn the British Commonwealth nation into a republic still clung to a lead of 102,000 votes with 86 of the 156 districts reported. But many heavily Nationalist rural districts were yet to be heard from.

Prof. Arthur Vleksley, running an electrical computer, predicted the margin in favor of a republic would approach 80,000 when all the votes were in from Wednesday's referendum.

United party leader Sir De Villiers Graaff, who led the anti-republicans, had not yet conceded defeat, however, and Verwoerd had not yet claimed a victory.

Dutch-born Verwoerd has declared that he will consider a majority of only one vote a mandate to submit to the Nationalist-controlled Parliament legislation to turn South Africa into a republic, substituting an elected president for Queen Elizabeth II as chief of state and recognizing the British sovereign only as head of the Commonwealth.

Special Session Ends

West Virginia Legislature OKs Plan For Needy Aged

CHARLESTON (AP) — The Democratic Legislature passed a medical care program for needy aged persons of approximately the size Republican Gov. Underwood asked, except that it voted financing for the next six months instead of nine.

The extraordinary session which ended late Wednesday afternoon voted $1.38 million in state funds to carry the program through next March. Underwood had asked for $2.09 million to take it through June 30, the end of this fiscal year.

"Appropriating money for six months is not sound financially and undoubtedly will cause frustration and uncertainty to our older citizens," Underwood said after the final adjournment of the three-day session. "Reflecting on the action of the Legislature in the light of my proposals, I can say a little help is better than no help."

But the view of the Democratic majorities in Senate and House was that the 1961 regular session of the Legislature beginning in January, will be soon enough to act on financing for the last quarter of the fiscal year.

House Finance Chairman Julius W. Singleton Jr., D-Monongalia, said that if the election brings a change of administrations in Washington, financing of medical care for the aged might be put under the Social Security system.

In fact, the Legislature adopted a resolution urging Congress to do

Scare Results Until Missing Boy Is Found

A search by Chester police and a worried mother for a boy believed trapped aboard a string of freight cars Wednesday night ended when the youth was found at home where he had returned after a walk.

Mrs. John Olash of Phoenix Ave. heard a voice calling "Mom, Mom," about 7:30, and thought it was her son, Jack, 11, who had left the house earlier.

Because the voice faded into the distance, she suddenly thought he may have climbed on some box cars of the nearby Pennsylvania Railroad Co. siding, and the cars had been moved by a shifter locomotive.

Mrs. Olash drove to Newell to head off the train, but when she couldn't locate it, she returned to Chester and reported her fears to Police Chief Harold Davis. Davis went to Newell, located the train and had the conductor search the cars.

Patrolman Clarence Lennens and Rex Cowey, special officer, meanwhile, had started a search with flashlights along the tracks, thinking the boy may have fallen from the cars. Mrs. Olash also got a flashlight and joined the search.

She finally returned home, and there was Jack who calmly told her he had gone for a walk on the hillside near Tinsonville.

The fading voice? It turned out to be a neighbor girl, looking for her brother and walking down the street calling, "Tom, Tom."

Traffic Plan With 3 Lanes Set In Chester

Carolina Ave. Section To Be Marked Out To Avoid Congestion

A three-lane traffic pattern on Carolina Ave. east of the Route 30 intersection was approved by Chester Council at a meet Wednesday night.

Council granted permission to the West Virginia Road Commission to paint lines east of the intersection to the Washington School, providing two lanes for west-bound traffic and one for east-bound.

No parking will be permitted on either side of the street from the intersection to the school. The plan, now duplicated on the west side of the intersection at the foot of the Route 30 hill, is designed to eliminate congestion.

Councilman Donald Hissam reported weeds six feet hish are growing along the right-of-way of the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. tracks, adding he thinks it "a disgrace."

Clerk Roy Cashdollar said the railroad was notified Aug. 9 about the condition, but nothing has apparently been done. Councilman W. F. Bishop is to confer with D. S. Craig, railroad freight agent, about the matter.

Hissam made a motion that the proposed tax on commercial service facilities, such as automatic laundries, be revised from $10 to $5 a machine. However, Councilman Charles Kology said City Solicitor Ruth Cox Turner had advised him she would be unable to attend the meeting, and she requested no action be taken on the ordinance, discussed at a previous meeting.

Council approved final reading of an ordinance aligning details of the sanitary board organization with the state code, and unanimously approved recommendation of Mayor Ray Collins to re-appoint John Pinney to the board to a three-year term.

Bishop reported he had discussed street parking conditions in the area about the Taylor, Smith & Taylor Co. pottery with Ed Morse, general manager. Council earlier

Game Protector Rufus Lide gave permission to Sheriff Russell VanFossan for use of the venison to feed prisoners.

Numbers Slip Case Dropped

Chester Man Freed On Motion By Clark

Indicating the prosecution felt it did not have enough evidence to secure a conviction, Asst. City Solicitor Richard J. Clark moved today in Municipal Court for dismissal of charges against a Chester man accused of illegal possession of numbers slips under the city's strict new anti-gambling law.

Judge Samuel M. Chertoff granted the motion to free Donald W. Stoffel, 4 Line St., Chester, in whose possession 2 numbers slips were found Tuesday night when he was taken into custody on an intoxication charge, according to police.

"As a result of conversations with the arresting officer, I move for dismissal of this charge," Clark told the court. "We couldn't prove he 'knowingly' was in possession of these slips, as the ordinance requires."

Clark added that since Stoffel is a resident of West Virginia the prosectuion did not know if he obtained the slips in Chester or in East Liverpool. He said there apparently was no firm case against the defendant despite investigation and interrogation.

Stoffel did not enter a plea, but he told the judge: "I didn't know I had them."

Police said numbers slips were found in Stoffel's possession after he was taken into custody in the City Bar in Diamond Alley early Tuesday night by Patrolman R. E. Higgins. Stoffel pleaded guilty to the intoxication charge. Following a policy he established Jan. 1, the judge gave Stoffel a suspended fine of $10 and costs because it was his first appearance on such a charge.

'GOP Nominee Will Be Accompanied By Wife In Ohio Bid

CLEVELAND (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon flies into Cleveland from Nashville, Tenn. During this evening's rush hour for a five-hour visit. He will deliver a half-hour campaign speech in Public Hall.

Twice the usual number of policemen will be on duty downtown to handle anticipated traffic jams as the Republican presidential nominee and his wife Pat, make a motorcade trip from Lakefront Airport south on East Ninth Street and west on Euclid Avenue to Public Square.

The Nixons' plane is due in at 5 p.m. and they are scheduled to reach public square 45 minutes later.

Mingled with the thousands of homeward-bound workers in the square will be additional thousands brought into the downtown area by buses which the local GOP organizations have chartered.

Nixon made his first direct bid for Ohio's 25 electoral votes last Saturday with a tour of Akron, Canton and Mansfield. It was disclosed Wednesday that he plans to make a campaign stop in Columbus at a later date.

At 10 p.m. Nixon leaves Cleveland Hopkins airport for Washington where Friday night he meets Democratic presidential candidate John F. Kennedy in the second of their nationally televised debates.

In Public Hall U.S. Rep. Frances P. Bolton of the 22nd Ohio district will introduce the Vice President after a program in which she and the other three Republican nominees for Congress from the Cleveland area make two-minute talks. The other candidates are Leonard G. Richter, 20th district; W.O. Walker, 21st district; and Rep. William E. Minshall, 22nd.

Former U.S. Sen. John W. Bricker and Ray C. Bliss, state GOP chairman, will be among 300 seated on the state during the speech. Others accorded seats of honor include Ted. W. Welding Supply Firm Entered By Intruders

There was no apparent loss in a burglary at Herdman Bros. Welding Supply Co., 238 Baum St., sometime Wednesday night or early today, police said.

The concern is operated by Elvin Herdman of Steubenville, who told police the building was entered between 5 p. m. yesterday and 8:30 this morning. A check is continuing to determine if there was any loss, officers said.

Entry was gained by forcing the front door, officers said. Pressure on the door near the lock ripped the door frame and pulled the lock catch from it, police said. There was no attempt to ransack the office or open the safe, officers reported.

It's Drizzling In Pittsburgh, But Game's On

PITTSBURGH (AP) — It began drizzling again in midmorning today after off-and-on rains during the night. Commissioner Ford C. Frick ordered the tarpaulin replaced at Forbes Field to insure a firm footing for the second game of the World Series between the Pittsburgh Pirates and the New York Yankees.

Frick said batting practice might be delayed but that all his information indicated the storm would move out of the Pittsburgh area well before the scheduled start of the game at 1 p. m. (EDT).

Meanwhile the happy Pittsburgh Pirates looked to Bob Friend, their 18-game winner, to tame the New York Yankees today and give them a 2-0 lead in baseball's World Series.

The National League champions beat the Yankees 6-4 in the first game of the fall classic Wednesday. Relief ace Elroy Face replaced starter Vern Law and stifled Yankee threats in the last two innings.

In an effort to even things at 1-1, the American League champs planned to start Bob Turley, a right-hander like Friend. Turley won only nine games during the regular season, but he is a World Series veteran. It will be Friend's first series start.

"They outfielded us and outpitched us," said Casey Stengel, 70, Yankee manager who has won 10 American League pennants in his 12 years with the Yankees. "I don't say they'll do it today."

Danny Murtaugh, the Bucs' manager who hopes to bring Pittsburgh its first world championship in 35 years, declared Bill Virdon's great catch of Yogi Berra's long drive in the fourth inning with two on and none out was the turning point of the game.

Navy Cranes Hoist Part Of Crashed Plane

BOSTON (AP)—Two Navy floating cranes today began raising the forward section of the Eastern Airlines Electra that carried 62 persons to their deaths in a take-off plunge into the harbor Tuesday night.

Federal Aviation Administrator E. R. Quesada suggested Wednesday starlings sucked into the air intakes may have disabled one or more of the four turbine-propeller engines. More than a hundred dead birds were found on the runway.

Only 11 of the 72 aboard the plane, bound for Philadelphia, Charlotte, N.C., Greenville, S.C., and Atlanta, survived the shattering crash. All were injured, six on the danger list at hospitals.

The pilot, co-pilot and engineer died but two stewardesses escaped serious injury.

Fifty-seven bodies have been recovered, all identified but one, a young Negro woman. Four persons are missing.

Two divers, James Walton and Jim Cahill, said the main section of fuselage, in 35 feet of water, looked "as though it had been ripped open with a can opener."

Pickets Close GE's Plant At Schenectady

Violence Flares At Syracuse Facility In Strike Against Firm

SCHENECTADY, N.Y. (AP) — General Electric's home plant was closed off by massed pickets today and violence erupted at a GE plant in Syracuse for the third day.

A company spokesman here said no one was able to enter the Schenectady plant today, where 20,000 persons are employed.

The pickets are members of the International Union of Electrical Workers (IUE), which struck GE nationwide Monday.

The Schenectady IUE local originally had voted against the strike. But after other GE plants were struck, the union conducted a new vote and decided to strike today.

In Syracuse, sheriffs deputies used fire hoses and clubs to force angry pickets away from the main gate of electronics park. At least three persons were hurt and a union organizer was arrested.

The parkway leading into the park was blocked by pickets cars.

Observers said the eruption was the most violent so far at Syracuse.

At one point, massed pickets rushed the deputies so violently that the deputies dropped one of the 2½-inch hoses they had been using.

After that incident, the pickets retired, leaving only a token force.

Raymond Baird, a vice president of the Syracuse IUE local was hospitalized with head injuries.

A union official complained that the use of clubs by deputies was "unnecessary vicious."

GE said approximately 1,600 union production workers entered electronics park today, about 200 more than did Wednesday.

The union repeatedly has said the company's figures were inflated.

The number of pickets at Schenectady could not be determined. The union had planned to mass 4,500. Four pickets were arrested.

Federal mediators plan to sit in on GE-IUE talks in New York City Friday in an effort to end the strike. Whether there would be a meeting today was uncertain.

The GE plant in Schenectady had announced that it expected its

The constabulary reported several fishing and small passenger boats overturned, but had no immediate word of casualties.

Unconfirmed reports said 14 people died in scattered mishaps before the full fury of the typhoon was felt.

South Africa Seen Leaving British Rule

Diminishing Lead Of Anti-Republic Voters Points Way

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — A diminishing anti-republican lead indicated today that South Africans have voted to cut their country loose from the British crown.

The forces opposing Nationalist Prime Minister Hendrix Verwoerd's plan to turn the British Commonwealth nation into a republic still clung to a lead of 102,000 votes with 98 of the 156 districts reported. But many heavily Nationalist rural districts were yet to be heard from.

Prof. Arthur Vlekaley, running an electrical computer, predicted the margin in favor of a republic would approach 80,000 when all the votes were in from Wednesday's referendum.

United party leader Sir De Villiers Graaff, who led the anti-republicans, had not yet conceded defeat, however, and Verwoerd had not yet claimed a victory.

Dutch-born Verwoerd has declared that he will consider a majority of only one vote a mandate to submit to the Nationalist-controlled Parliament legislation to turn South Africa into a republic, substituting an elected president for Queen Elizabeth II as chief of state and recognizing the British sovereign only as head of the Commonwealth.

Scare Results Until Missing Boy Is Found

A search by Chester police and a worried mother for a boy believed trapped aboard a string of freight cars Wednesday night ended when the youth was found at home where he had returned after a walk.

Mrs. John Olash of Phoenix Ave. heard a voice calling "Mom, Mom," about 7:30, and thought it was her son, Jack, 11, who had left the house earlier.

Because the voice faded into the distance, she suddenly thought he may have climbed on some box cars of the nearby Pennsylvania Railroad Co. siding, and the cars had been moved by a shifter locomotive.

Mrs. Olash drove to Newell to head off the train, but when she couldn't locate it, she returned to Chester and reported her fears to Police Chief Harold Davis. Davis went to Newell, located the train and had the conductor search the cars.

Patrolman Clarence Leneens and Rex Cowey, special officer, meanwhile, had started a search with flashlights along the tracks, thinking the boy may have fallen from the cars. Mrs. Olash also got a flashlight and joined the search.

She finally returned home, and there was Jack who calmly told her he had gone for a walk on the hillside near Tinsonville.

The fading voice? It turned out to be a neighbor girl, looking for her brother and walking down the street calling, "Tom, Tom."

Traffic Plan With 3 Lanes Set In Chester

Carolina Ave. Section To Be Marked Out To Avoid Congestion

A three-lane traffic pattern on Carolina Ave. east of the Route 30 intersection was approved by Chester Council at a meet Wednesday night.

Council granted permission to the West Virginia Road Commission to paint lines east of the intersection to the Washington School, providing two lanes for west-bound traffic and one for east-bound.

No parking will be permitted on either side of the street from the intersection to the school. The plan, now duplicated on the west side of the intersection at the foot of the Route 30 hill, is designed to eliminate congestion.

Councilman Donald Hissam reported weeds six feet high are growing along the right-of-way of the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. tracks, adding he thinks it "a disgrace."

Clerk Roy Cashdollar said the railroad was notified Aug. 9 about the condition, but nothing has apparently been done. Councilman W. F. Bishop is to confer with D. S. Craig, railroad freight agent, about the matter.

Hissam made a motion that the proposed tax on commercial service facilities, such as automatic laundries, be revised from $10 to $5 a machine. However, Councilman Charles Kohgy said City Solicitor Ruth Cox Turner had advised him she would be unable to attend the meeting, and she requested no action be taken on the ordinance, discussed at a previous meeting.

Council approved final reading of an ordinance aligning details of the sanitary board organization with the state code, and unanimously approved recommendation of Mayor Ray Collins to re-appoint John Pinney to the board to a three-year term.

Bishop reported he had discussed street parking conditions in the area about the Taylor, Smith & Taylor Co. pottery with Ed Morse, general manager. Council earlier

Numbers Slip Case Dropped

Chester Man Freed On Motion By Clark

Indicating the prosecution felt it did not have enough evidence to secure a conviction, Asst. City Solicitor Richard J. Clark moved today in Municipal Court for dismissal of charges against a Chester man accused of illegal possession of numbers slips under the city's strict new anti-gambling law.

Judge Samuel M. Chertoff granted the motion to free Donald W. Stoffel, 4 Line St., Chester, in whose possession 2 numbers slips were found Tuesday night when he was taken into custody on an intoxication charge, according to police.

"As a result of conversations with the arresting officer, I move for dismissal of this charge," Clark told the court. "We couldn't prove he 'knowingly' was in possession of these slips, as the ordinance requires."

Clark added that since Stoffel is a resident of West Virginia the prosecution did not know if he obtained the slips in Chester or in East Liverpool. He said there apparently was no firm case against the defendant despite investigation and interrogation.

Stoffel did not enter a plea, but he told the judge: "I didn't know I had them."

Police said numbers slips were found in Stoffel's possession after he was taken into custody in the City Bar in Diamond Alley early Tuesday night by Patrolman R. E. Higgins. Stoffel pleaded guilty to the intoxication charge. Following a policy he established Jan. 1, the judge gave Stoffel a suspended fine as the said costs became $ and he first appearance on such a charge.

Special Session Ends

West Virginia Legislature OKs Plan For Needy Aged

CHARLESTON (AP) — The Democratic Legislature passed a medical care program for needy aged persons of approximately the size Republican Gov. Underwood asked, except that it voted financing for the next six months instead of nine.

The extraordinary session which ended late Wednesday afternoon voted $1.30 million in state funds to carry the program through next March. Underwood had asked for $2.60 million to take it through June 30, the end of this fiscal year.

"Appropriating money for six months is not sound financially and undoubtedly will cause frustration and uncertainty to our elder citizens," Underwood said after the final adjournment of the three-day session. "Reflecting on the action of the Legislature in the light of my proposals, I can say a little help is better than no help."

But the view of the Democratic majorities in Senate and House was that the 1961 regular session of the Legislature beginning in January, will be soon enough to act on financing for the last quarter of the fiscal year.

House Finance Chairman Julius W. Singleton Jr., D-Monongalia, said that if the election brings a change of administrations in Washington, financing of medical care for the aged might be put under the Social Security system.

In fact, the Legislature adopted a resolution urging Congress to do

West Virginia

just that. Sponsor of the resolution was Senate President Ralph J. Bean, D-Hardy, who cast the only Senate votes against the medical care bill and the appropriation bill that went with it.

The resolution said that unless the program is put on a basis of self-financing, West Virginia "will have an increasingly large and costly burden in paying for the care of the medically needy."

The Legislature passed the Underwood medical care bill. Only the accompanying appropriation bill, with its six-month financing, differed from the governor's recommendation.

The Senate votes were 27-1 on both bills. In the House, the votes were 89-3 on the medical bill and 93-0 on the appropriation measure. The dissenting delegates on the medical bill were Eudora Andrews, D-Kanawha; John L. Goshorn, D-Kanawha, and Smith McCoy, D-McDowell.

The money is to come out of available surplus, without any increased taxes. The Legislature ignored Underwood's requests for an increase in the consumers' sales tax from 2 to 3 per cent, at the same time exempting food from the tax entirely, and for a boost in the tax on pari-mutuel betting at horse race tracks.

Together with federal funds available to West Virginia on a 72.7-27.3 per cent matching basis, the $1.38 million appropriation will make possible a total program amounting to $843,000 a month—or slightly over $5 million for the six-month period.

It will provide benefits to pay hospital, doctor and drug bills for acute illnesses of persons 65 and older whose incomes do not exceed $1,500 a year and who are not already receiving old age benefits from the Department of Public Assistance. According to the DPA, about 102,500 West Virginians will be eligible for the new program.

The federal money for the new program was authorized under a law passed by Congress in August. Underwood's main purpose in calling the special session was to enable West Virginia to participate.

However, he included two other requests in his call, neither of which ever got to the floor for serious consideration. He asked for another $1 million for conservation projects to give jobs to the unemployed under the State Temporary Economic Program and $442,000 with which to aid 78 men to the State Police.

All the special session did for STEP was pass a resolution giving the Legislature's blessing in case the Board of Public Works sees fit to release immediately $2.4 million already available for the program.

Of the $3.5 million which the 1960 regular session appropriated for STEP, $2.4 million has not yet been spent. Appropriations ordinarily are released by the board in quarterly installments.

As to voting any more money for STEP at this time, House Majority Leader Thomas E. Myles, D-Fayette, said it "could not possibly be wisely spent before we are back here in January."

In view of the Democrats' hostility toward State Police Supt. Hazen Fair, Underwood's request for more state troopers was dead almost as soon as he uttered it at the opening meeting Monday. House Speaker Harry R. Pauley, D-McDowell, predicted that "no adjustment will be made until a new superintendent is installed."

In a closed meeting, the Senate acted on 46 appointments made by Underwood sinec the last session. All appointees of department head rank were confirmed, but two others were rejected.

Turned down by the Senate were the reappointment of H. E. (Tom) Clovis of Vienna to the Advisory Board to the State Road Commission and the appointment of Ben Grant Jr. of Parkersburg to the Real Estate Commission.

Lodge Carries Drive To Oregon

CORVALLIS, Ore. (AP)—Henry Cabot Lodge, after a swing through California, brought the Republican campaign to this college town in western Oregon today.

The GOP vice presidential candidate was met by an enthusiastic crowd of 400, mostly students from Oregon State College, when his plane landed late Wednesday night.

He was scheduled for a mid-day speech at the college today, then was to go on to Portland for a nighttime rally.

Here he was in a Republican stronghold in a state where Democrats hold a slight registration lead. The noise of reception indicated it was Republican land.

The smiling Lodge ignored a stiff wind to speak briefly.

He said this nation needs to do more than just score over the Communists.

"We need to reach a new plateau to bring lasting peace," he said.

The Soviet bloc abstained on both votes. The United States voted in favor of the Australian amendment and against retention of the reference to Eisenhower and Khrushchev.

Khrushchev had also shown his opposition to talking with Eisenhower by setting conditions he knew the President would not meet. Apparently unconcerned about the outcome of either the neutralist resolution or the Australian amendment, the Soviet leader did not attend the long, wrangling night session of the Assembly.

Instead he busied himself playing hail fellow well met at receptions given by Cambodia, India and Romania. He invited Prince Norodom Sihanouk, head of the Cambodian government, to visit him in Moscow. The prince did not immediately accept.

Eisenhower invited one of the most powerful neutralist leaders —President Sukarno of Indonesia —to the White House for a conference this morning, prior to Sukarno's departure for home tonight. Sukarno, who arrived late for the Assembly session, was the only one of the neutralist "Big Five" Eisenhower had not talked with during the session.

The New York Times reported that the United States has agreed to give Indonesia more military aid. The paper said the American assurances were given to Lt. Gen. Abdul Haris Nasution, Indonesian defense minister, during conferences in Washington last week with Defense Secretary Thomas S. Gates Jr. and members of the oint Chiefs of Staff.

Britain's Prime Minister Harold Macmillan flew back to London Wednesday night. He made a mildly optimistic statement before boarding his plane.

"There are moments in history," he said, "when the confusion, the doubts and the animosities make all feel uncertain and doubtful of the future. It will take a long time and will not be easy to reach settlement of the problems.

"We must not be foolish optimistics or too pessimistic. We must work quietly and never surrender our principles of freedom."

employes to come to work today. But, a spokesman said, "we don't want battles on the picket lines, nor do we want anyone to try to force his car through."

The sporadic picket line violence across the country subsided somewhat Wednesday, except in Syracuse.

Sheriff's deputies resorted to fire hoses to open a path for nonstrikers at the Syracuse plant. Seven pickets were arrested.

GE officials at Syracuse began injunction proceedings to curb what the company termed mobs of pickets blocking plant gates.

At Anniston, Ala., eggs and rocks flew at cars entering a plant.

Six people were arrested in a disturbance at the Bucyrus, Ohio, plant when workers attempted to drive through a picket line. Four were pickets.

The others arrested, a couple, were charged by a picket of brandishing a pistol and hitting him as they attempted to move through the line.

H. L. Weiss, general manager of the GE lamp division in Cleveland, in a telegram to David J. Fitzmaurice, president of IUE district 7, charged that "vicious violence and vandalism" was being inflicted at bucyrus by pickets imported "from Westinghouse plants in Mansfield, Warren and Columbus (Ohio)."

At Salem, Va., strikers complained to Mayor James I. Moyer about alleged mistreatment by Salem police. The union charged that police have pushed and shoved the strikers. Picketing was quiet Wednesday.

After mediation sessions in New York City Wednesday, the company accused the union of offering new contract proposals that actually would block an agreement.

The IUE declined comment.

The union, which represents 70,000 of GE's 240,000 workers, is demanding a cost of living escalator clause along with wage increases and other benefits.

GE has offered salary increases of its own but has refused to continue the escalator clause in a new contract.

The IUE said average pay for production workers was $2.30 to $2.40 per hour.

West Virginia

just that. Sponsor of the resolution was Senate President Ralph J. Bean, D-Hardy, who cast the only Senate votes against the medical care bill and the appropriation bill that went with it.

The resolution said that unless the program is put on a basis of self-financing, West Virginia "will have an increasingly large and costly burden in paying for the care of the medically needy."

The Legislature passed the Underwood medical care bill. Only the accompanying appropriation bill, with its six-month financing, differed from the governor's recommendation.

The Senate votes were 27-1 on both bills. In the House, the votes were 89-3 on the medical bill and 93-0 on the appropriation measure. The dissenting delegates on the medical bill were Eudora Andrews, D-Kanawha; John L. Goshorn, D-Kanawha, and Smith McCoy, D-McDowell.

The money is to come out of available surplus, without any increased taxes. The Legislature ignored Underwood's requests for an increase in the consumers' sales tax from 2 to 3 per cent, at the same time exempting food from the tax entirely, and for a boost in the tax on pari-mutuel betting at horse race tracks.

Together with federal funds available to West Virginia on a 72.7-27.3 per cent matching basis, the $1.38 million appropriation will make possible a total program amounting to $843,000 a month—or slightly over $5 million for the six-month period.

It will provide benefits to pay hospital, doctor and drug bills for acute illnesses of persons 65 and older whose incomes do not exceed $1,500 a year and who are not already receiving old age benefits from the Department of Public Assistance. According to the DPA, about 102,500 West Virginians will be eligible for the new program.

The federal money for the new program was authorized under a law passed by Congress in August. Underwood's main purpose in calling the special session was to enable West Virginia to participate.

However, he included two other requests in his call, neither of which ever got to the floor for serious consideration. He asked for another $1 million for conservation projects to give jobs to the unemployed under the State Temporary Economic Program and $442,000 with which to aid 78 men to the State Police.

All the special session did for STEP was pass a resolution giving the Legislature's blessing in case the Board of Public Works sees fit to release immediately $2.4 million already available for the program.

Of the $3.5 million which the 1960 regular session appropriated for STEP, $2.4 million has not yet been spent. Appropriations ordinarily are released by the board in quarterly installments.

As to voting any more money for STEP at this time, House Majority Leader Thomas E. Myles, D-Fayette, said it "could not possibly be wisely spent before we are back here in January."

In view of the Democrats' hostility toward State Police Supt. Hazen Fair, Underwood's request for more state troopers was dead almost as soon as he uttered it at the opening meeting Monday. House Speaker Harry R. Pauley, D-McDowell, predicted that "no adjustment will be made until a new superintendent is installed."

In a closed meeting, the Senate acted on 46 appointments made by Underwood since the last session. All appointees of department head rank were confirmed, but two others were rejected.

Turned down by the Senate were the reappointment of H. E. (Tom) Clevis of Vienna to the Advisory Board to the State Road Commission and the appointment of Ben Grant Jr. of Parkersburg to the Real Estate Commission.

Lodge Carries Drive To Oregon

CORVALLIS, Ore. (AP)—Henry Cabot Lodge, after a swing through California, brought the Republican campaign to this college town in western Oregon today.

The GOP vice presidential candidate was met by an enthusiastic crowd of 600, mostly students from Oregon State College, when his plane landed late Wednesday night.

He was scheduled for a mid-day speech at the college today, then was to go on to Portland for a nighttime rally.

Here he was in a Republican stronghold in a state where Democrats hold a slight registration lead. The noise of reception indicated it was Republican land.

The smiling Lodge ignored a stiff wind to speak briefly.

He said this nation needs to do more than just score over the Communists.

"We need to reach a new plateau to bring lasting peace," he said.

The Soviet bloc abstained on both votes. The United States voted in favor of the Australian amendment and against retention of the reference to Eisenhower and Khrushchev.

Khrushchev had also shown his opposition to talking with Eisenhower by setting conditions he knew the President would not meet. Apparently unconcerned about the outcome of either the neutralist resolution or the Australian amendment, the Soviet leader did not attend the long, wrangling night session of the Assembly.

Instead he busied himself playing hail fellow well met at receptions given by Cambodia, India and Romania. He invited Prince Norodom Sihanouk, head of the Cambodian government, to visit him in Moscow. The prince did not immediately accept.

The West meanwhile mounted a counteroffensive to Communist maneuvers in and out of the U.N.

Eisenhower invited one of the most powerful neutralist leaders —President Sukarno of Indonesia —to the White House for a conference this morning, prior to Sukarno's departure for home tonight. Sukarno, who arrived late for the Assembly session, was the only one of the neutralist "Big Five" Eisenhower had not talked with during the session.

The New York Times reported that the United States has agreed to give Indonesia more military aid. The paper said the American assurances were given to Lt. Gen. Abdul Haris Nasution, Indonesian defense minister, during conferences in Washington last week with Defense Secretary Thomas S. Gates Jr. and members of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Britain's Prime Minister Harold Macmillan flew back to London Wednesday night. He made a mildly optimistic statement before boarding his plane.

"There are moments in history," he said, "when the confusion, the doubts and the animosities make all feel uncertain and doubtful of the future. It will take a long time and will not be easy to reach settlement of the problems.

"We must not be foolish optimistics or too pessimistic. We must work quietly and never surrender our principles of freedom."

The fight between heavyweight champion Jack Dempsey and the Frenchman, Georges Carpentier, in Jersey City on July 2, 1921, produced the first "million dollar gate" in boxing history.

Morse told Bishop he would have the parking limit ordinance posted in the plant, and if employes do not comply, the city will have to take action.

Waving The Tattered Shirt

Sooner or later, a Democratic candidate for president gets around to the depression of the '30s.

It isn't as fashionable as it used to be to run against Herbert Hoover, but waving the tattered shirt of the depression is standard practice.

Sen Kennedy has started his shirt-waving in one of the most depressed areas of the country, central and southwestern Illinois. He recalled corn prices of 10 cents a bushel and high interest rates when he spoke in Springfield.

The implication was clear; it always is when a Democratic presidential candidate waves the shirt. The Republican party, which tends to reflect the point of view of the management of U.S. enterprise, is about to inflict hard times on wage earners; that is what Democrats imply— that Republicans like to make — wage earners squirm.

The other part of the implication is that Democrats know how to avert hard times. They will not let anything bad happen. They will take a firm grasp of the country's problems and solve them quick as a wink.

No one should know better than a financier's son that employment opportunities are made by capital investment, not by robbing Peter to pay Paul and writing the record of the robbery on the federal cuff. That is simply a gimmick to inflate the volume of money without starting the printing presses.

Perhaps in the remaining weeks of the campaign, Sen. Kennedy will get together with his brain trust to produce a proposal to bring boom times to central and southwestern Illinois. Perhaps they will bring out a plan to get rid of unemployment in the Kentucky mining industry. Perhaps they'll figure out some way to let farmers produce surpluses that will sell for top-dollar prices.

THE UNITED STATES has unemployment in 1960. Economists say it is an inventory readjustment that was set into motion by the longest steel strike in history a year ago last summer.

Most economists think unemployment will work itself out because consumer buying is continuing at a high rate, using up goods. They think it is significant that the American people are confident of their ability to go from where they are to still higher levels of productivity and prosperity.

But economists who think this way did not foresee that in the 1960 presidential campaign one candidate would wave the tattered shirt and talk about the depression that would ensue if voters elected his opponent.

Airplanes Will Always Fall

It will be a tragedy if a new series of plane crashes shakes public confidence in commercial aviation, as it did in 1959.

It will be a tragedy within a tragedy if the manufacturer of one kind of commercial plane again must bear the brunt of spectacular accidents, which was the case last year.

Airplanes will always fall. There is nothing else they can do when flaws in their construction or in their operation cause accidents. This is the unique problem of the aviation industry.

The automobile industry is the prime source of accidents in the modern world. Some safety engineers contend that many of the fatal and crippling accidents charged to reckless driving should be charged to the faulty construction of motor vehicles. But auto accidents occur on the ground. There is not the ultimate disaster of a plunge earthward from the air.

Marine accidents, such as the disaster that befell the great ship Titanic, are worse than land accidents, though not as bad as aviation accidents. When ship designers make mistakes and operators blunder, there is the danger of drowning. But drowning people have a chance to save themselves. They can be given a chance with lifeboats, life rafts, life preservers and their own ability to stay afloat in the water.

Only in aviation accidents is there the ultimate disaster — the plunge out of the air to the earth or to water. The Boston disaster —involving a make of plane that has been plagued with accidents — was a plunge to water.

Airplanes are the safest way to cover distance. If a person must travel a million miles in a 70-year lifetime, he should do it by plane. But if the idea is to minimize the risk of being killed in a 70-year lifetime, the best idea would be to limit traveling to a minimum, especially in airplanes. There's always that plunge if something goes wrong.

Mulling over the matter for several days, we think two questions raised by Mrs. Virginia McCleary's apple pie, which caused a bomb scare around Park Ave. quarters of Nikita Khrushchev, are these:

1. Will it set back apple pie baking or boost it as the pie that can keep Nikita off balconies?

2. Will it add to the apathy of Americans by leading them to think that, while Khrushy threatens to unleash rockets at us, we can be satisfied by unleashing pastry at him?

We talked to numerous housewives, most of whom criticized Mrs. McCleary for sending an apple pie when raspberry was clearly called for. All admitted that any homemade pie could be deadly, all depending on the cook.

"I made my first apple pie today," said a candid beginner, "and it is so potentially dangerous that I am sending it to Castro, with a simple note, 'Lay off our Guantanamo Naval base, or you'll get my first attempt at lemon-chiffon.'"

Anyhow Mrs. McCleary's pie is the Pie of the Year, putting it smack into the U.N. rodeo, attaining world publicity and being the only pie ever to win a place in international relations. (No other pie can make that statement.)

This bit of home cooking brought out the Bomb Squad, special bomb-hauling vehicles, fluoroscopes and a trip to the underground regions of Fort Totten. Justifiably so.

The pie did not tick but it came in a suspicious package. America got a break through fast, Khrushchev didn't get the package, open it and stage a balcony vaudeville act. 'Who's Afraid of the Big Bad Pie," or "Home-Cooking and World Peace."

Nine New York firemen have been suspended for working on outside jobs after duty. All were working as chauffeurs or plant helpers in a brewery. It seems to us that a fireman might be a little slow going up a ladder after a day on a beer truck. And that after a night with a fire ax he might be no bargain making a beer delivery.

A hive or colony of bees is at its maximum population during the time of storing surplus honey. At that time, the average colony, roughly estimated, contains between 50,000 and 75,000 workers, one queen, and a few hundred to a thousand drones.

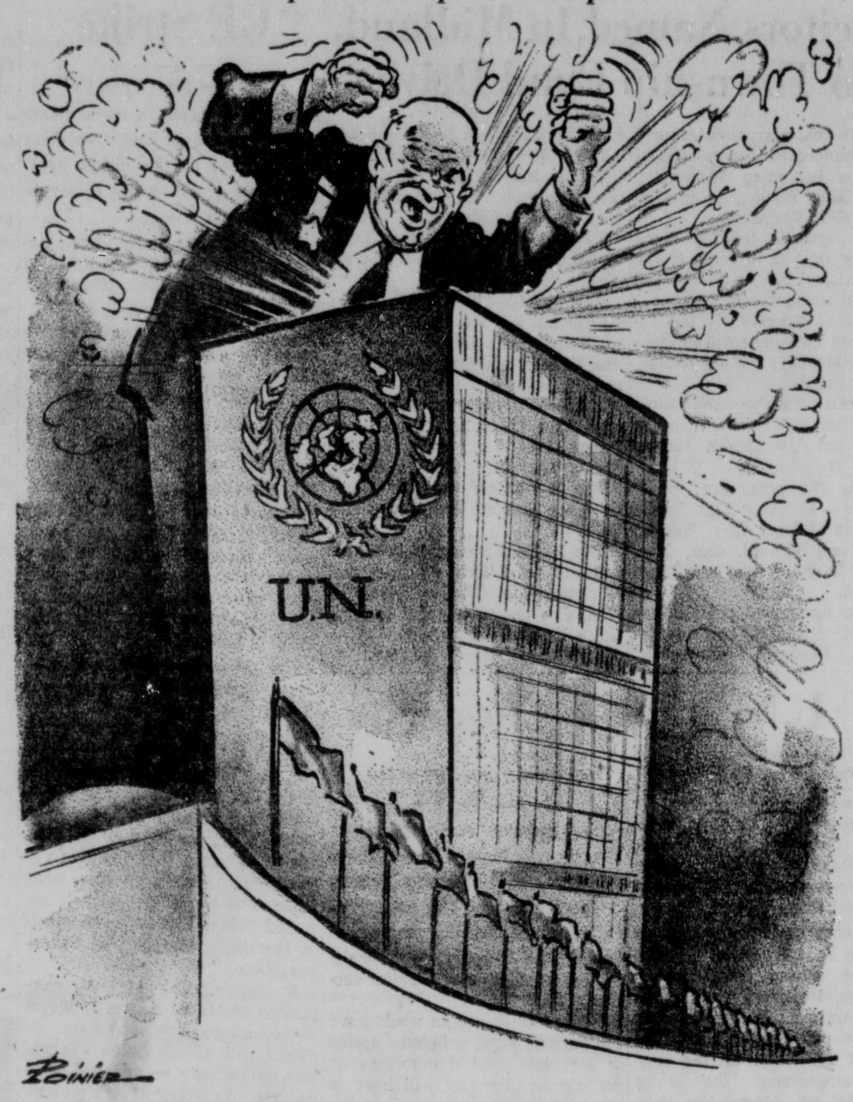
Temper, Temper, Temper!



Labor Beats Drums, Quietly, In Texas

By Victor Riesel

DALLAS, TEXAS

To this Texas stranger it appears that John Kennedy can take the state only if the quiet perpetual political motion of several unions achieves their objective. What labor wants to deliver to the ticket of "JFK and LBJ" is about 125,000 voters who went for President Eisenhower four years ago.

Victor Riesel

This the labor leaders and their Democratic party partners believe, should swing the state. The President carried it by 220,000 votes last time. Not even the Republicans expect Richard Nixon to come near Mr. Eisenhower's popular pull. So the labor drive is to cut the GOP margin in half.

Had they done that in '56, they'd have kept Texas "regular." They didn't because they reckon a good many of their 500,000 to 600,000 AFL-CIO members went for the President. Now the objective is to keep their followers tight on the Democratic line.

Much of the precinct pounding is being done by the Auto Workers Union whose president is Walter Reuther.

The Detroit union chief, who at this writing has been campaigning so hard he worked himself into the hospital with a bad throat, promised Lyndon Johnson personally he'd deliver. And he is trying.

THIS HAPPENED one Thursday back in mid-August. Reuther was in Jack Kennedy's senatorial office discussing the congressional session.

Johnson, unaware that Reuther was with the front runner, walked in. Not wishing to intrude the Texan said to the union leader, drop in on me before you leave.

Reuther did — and promised that he would urge his people everywhere to work this time as never before. Not long after that, even the most militant of unions began talking of "Kennedy and Johnson" instead of just the top of the ticket.

Kennedy's opponents here are, therefore, running just as hard against Reuther as they are against the Massachusetts senator. But there are other active unions — the steel workers of Dave McDonald, the machinists of Al Hayes and some of the construction trades.

TEXAS LABOR doesn't beat the drums as the unions do up North. Here they are quiet men for many reasons.

This is the only state which ever was an independent republic. They don't like to get pushed around and that's the understatement of the century.

Labor knows it and doesn't want to give the impression of an invasion.

Typical was labor's preparation for John Kennedy's mid-September sortie here. The unions wanted big crowds to greet him and fill the 10,000 - seat Dallas Memorial Auditorium.

They and the Democrats swiftly compiled lists of rank-and-filers. The lists were typed, handwritten, scrawled — anything to put names down on paper.

The little rosters were distributed to union men and women who took them home and hit the phones. Thousands of calls were made.

Some I spoke to received five and six calls because of duplications.

THE CROWDS roared that day and some 9,500 filled the house. This could not have been done over the five or six phones then available in party headquarters.

Thus it will go right through to ballot time. Towards the end of October, the International Assn. of Machinists will run a victory dinner in a local hotel. Ten dollars a plate and a speech by Sen. Estes Kefauver.

They're working hard, these unions, unlike others in the rest of the West and Southwest. A survey shows that of the entire area only Texas, California, Montana and some sections of Oregon are pitching for the national Democratic ticket.

No one really seems to know why there's been so little follow through on the actual endorsements.

That's why the Texas labor story is the vital one in this part of the nation. A mighty big 24 electoral votes hang on it.

Want To Live Forever?

By Thomas R. Henry

A normal human life span of about 1,400 years may be possible.

It depends on learning and utilizing the secret of hibernation, the "long sleep" that bears and some other mammals take each winter.

This is a prospect, admittedly dim at present, evoked at an Office of Naval Research Symposium on Hibernation, attended by experts from all over the world.

Hibernation is only vaguely understood by physiologists. It is not, they agree, "sleep" as the term generally is understood. It is the reduction, in some way, of the body's vital processes to the point where they barely function — a sort of vacation from living.

Dr. Albert R. Dawe, of the Office of Naval Research staff, described hibernation this way:

"A hibernating animal survives on about 100th of its normal food and oxygen. Within limits an animal in hibernation is relatively uninfluenced by radiation, sound light and temperature but is highly sensitive to tactile stimuli.

"If hibernation could be attained for man the space capsule in which he would fly, or the submarine in which he would ride, could be kept constantly at a low temperature, perhaps zero centigrade (freezing). Food and oxygen requirements might be only 100th that of an active man.

"In hibernation man's arrest of time might be such that he could possibly exist for about 20 normal lifetimes, or 1,400 years.

Some hibernating bats apparently may live 20 times longer than non-hibernating mammals of the same body weight. During hibernation a man would not suffer from radiation. Mammals endure tremendous doses without effect while hibernating. Upon returning to activity, however, they showed most of the usual signs of injury.

"Aside from space travel, a method may be developed for holding a man in suspended animation for future activity, medical treatment or other reasons."

There are, the report points out, many popular misconceptions on the subject.

It is generally believed, for example, that it is associated with the onset of cold. But, says the report, "cold does not cause hibernation nor do animals arouse from it in the spring because of greater warmth. However, cold applied to an animal about to hibernate increases the profundity of the torpor into which it will sink. But it is not restricted to season. It can occur at any time of the year.

Purely Personal

I never have known anyone who changed his mind about a presidential candidate, although I have known many persons who concealed the fact their minds were made up by going through the motions of free inquiry.

The wild cherry crop at our place this year was vintage quality, but the only thing we ever heard of to do with wild cherries was a dock-walloper beverage called "Wild cherry bounce"—and we had no recipe.

The most logical thing in auto design is to get all the usable space under one roof, where everything is accessible, as it is in the many varieties of "wagons" now being offered.

No man could laugh as spontaneously as Dwight Eisenhower laughs, unless he was genuinely happy in the presence of the crowds that have seen the famous Eisenhower grin all over the world.

I think often of the bad old days of football when overstimulated boys took off their helmets and played bareheaded to prove to themselves—and the fans—that they were putting all of themselves into the fray for the glory of dear Old Siwash.

It's a relief to have hat-wearing season come again, because that's where I keep memos and clippings—stuck into the crown of my hat, where I cannot help seeing them every time I put on the hat.

Something precious has been taken away from politics. No one ever promises any more to reduce taxes. All the boys now are ranged cheek by jowl on the same side of the oldest issue in public affairs. They all want more money to spend.

I wonder why it took so long for engineers to figure out that the public wanted auto mufflers and tail pipes that wouldn't have to be renewed.

A few years ago they made provisions for television rooms in new houses. A few years hence, smart architects will make provisions for non-television rooms, so people who still read will have a fighting chance.

Every time I see a man wearing a vest, now that vests are back in style, I think of the vests that mouldered away on hangers at the far end of the clothes closet during the years when a vest came with every suit, whether the purchaser wanted it or not.

One of the notable things about the 1960 presidential election is the way the religious issue reveals the nature of the areas where the issue sizzles and pops. They are the areas with the least inside plumbing.

New York City was reminded of the problem of hop-heads while the story of a $4 million heroin seizure by federal agents was still fresh. An 80-year-old charwoman was assaulted by two young men looking for money to buy themselves a fix. She beat them off and summoned police.

The bumps being taken by the British Labor party are an advance showing of the bumps that would be taken by an American Labor party, if labor politicians in this country struck out on their own.

Liberation Promises

By David Lawrence

What Do Kennedy's Words Mean?

Sen. Kennedy has promised that, if elected president, he will "announce to the world a specific course of action to aid the restoration of freedom in Poland and the captive nations."

David Lawrence

These words were read by Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan, Democrat, to a gathering in connection with the annual Pulaski Day parade in New York City last Sunday.

What does this promise mean? Will America take forceful action to "liberate" Poland and the other captive nations?

In view of the vehement criticism launched by Democratic party speakers in the 1952 presidential campaign and continued ever since against Dwight Eisenhower, as well as John Foster Dulles, because they spoke of "peaceful liberation" and "rolling back the Iron Curtain," the question now is whether the Democrats have forgiven the Republicans or whether the "action" which Sen. Kennedy promises is going to be subject to Republican attack on the ground that, if elected president, he might drag the United States into a war.

WHAT EISENHOWER said on Aug. 25, 1952, was this:

"We can never rest—and we must so inform all the world, including the Kremlin—that until the enslaved nations of the world have in the fullness of freedom the right to choose their own path, that then, and then only, can we say that there is a possible way of living peacefully and permanently with Communism in the world.

"We must tell the Kremlin that never shall we desist in our aid to every man and woman of those shackled lands who seeks refuge with us, any man who keeps burning among his own people the flame of freedom and who is dedicated to the liberation of his fellows."

Immediately, candidate Adlai Stevenson said in a speech in Michigan on Sept. 1 of that year:

"His (Eisenhower's) speech aroused speculation here and abroad that if he were elected, some reckless action might ensue in an attempt to liberate the peoples of Eastern Europe from Soviet tyranny."

Former President Truman, in a speech in West Virginia the next day, said:

"To try to liberate these enslaved people at this time might well mean turning these lands into atomic battlefields. . . .

"If the Republicans don't mean to give that armed support—and I feel sure they don't—then they are trying to deceive their fellow citizens at home and playing cruel, gutter politics with the lives of countless good men and women behind the Iron Curtain."

Mr. Dulles four days later took issue with Mr. Truman in a statement which said:

"It is, of course, absurd to suggest that Gen. Eisenhower anticipates invoking wholesale insurrection by unarmed slaves. Premature revolt would expose the patriotic people to liquidation. There are countless peaceful ways by which the task of the Russian despots can be made so unbearably difficult that they will renounce their rule. That was shown in Yugoslavia."

SEN. KENNEDY is today saying the same thing as Gen. Eisenhower and Mr. Dulles did in 1952. Mr. Kennedy, in his address to the Polish-American Congress at Chicago last Saturday, for example, declared:

"We must be willing to recognize growing divisions in the Communist camp, and be willing to encourage those divisions. My amendment to the Battle Act (a federal appropriation law) would permit the president to use our economic strength to promote peaceful change behind the Iron Curtain wherever this would help wean the so-called captive nations away from their Kremlin masters. . . .

"We must never—at any summit, in any treaty declaration, in our words or even in our minds—recognize Soviet domination of Eastern Europe."

THESE ARE strong words, and yet will they now be misinterpreted to imply that "peaceful liberation" means something else?

Two wrongs do not make a single right. The fact that Adlai Stevenson and other Democrats of prominence have, ever since 1952, maligned John Foster Dulles as having really promised military liberation of Eastern Europe, when his speeches permitted no such inference, should hardly be an example for Republican partisans to follow in the current campaign.

It is encouraging news that both parties in America are committed, at least by the utterances of their respective candidates, to do everything, short of the exercise of military force, to assist in the liberation of the enslaved peoples of Eastern Europe.

Matter Of Opposites

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

This would be a dull world if look-alikes faced each other. They haven't for some time, at home or abroad.

Instead, it's a matter of opposites. Take President Eisenhower and Premier Khrushchev, for instance, or the presidential candidates: Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Sen. John F. Kennedy.

Tubby Khrushchev is an actor, a highly charged, outgoing experimenter, unpredictable, ready to pop off in an assembly hall, on a sidewalk or on a balcony.

And he's no respecter of rules, as he demonstrated at the United Nations.

Eisenhower can throw up his arms to greet a crowd like a Tammany politician, grin in public as easily as Bob Hope, and pump a hand as hard as Khrushchev.

But he never seems at ease in a mob. He makes speeches from prepared texts, is as predictable as a clock, preserves his dignity, and follows the diplomatic rules.

And he's a conservative, not an experimenter: Witness his concern for balancing the budget.

Closer at home the presidential candidates are opposites, too. Here Nixon is the actor, Kennedy the reserved one.

Like Jack Benny, Nixon always has his ear cocked for a sound from the audience, and can acknowledge it with a smile just as fast. Trained in debating, he never forgets how he looks—and sounds —in public.

He wraps himself in the flag a lot (as does Kennedy) and once he finds something he thinks the crowd likes he plays it over and over.

For example: He hadn't been mentioning his running mate, Henry Cabot Lodge, then did, got a big audience response, and then repeated it every place he went, with trimmings.

Kennedy also knows some things which have crowd appeal—like repeatedly mentioning his war record. But he's no actor. He doesn't even know how to use his hands well.

For example: He gestures endlessly with his right hand, up and down, to emphasize a point like a man chopping meat.

His speaking voice, after one listens for a while when he's making a speech, gets irritating. Yet, although he was bent on the presidency a long time, he only recently began to take advice on using his voice.

He's not only not a baby-kisser, he's not a very willing lady-kisser, as a recent photo showed when a woman admirer burst through a crowd to embrace him and he jerked back like a man about to be stabbed.

There always seem to be opposites. Just go back a bit—to President Truman when he ran against Thomas E. Dewey.

The overheated Truman, quick with a crack, was full of fire and damnation for Republicans. Dewey, stiff as a starched shirt, never learned to unbend, even when playing to a crowd.

TEN YEARS AGO — Members of the East Liverpool High School Band and Orchestra Mothers realized $850 from their annual tag day.

Mrs. O. E. Hall was received as a new member of the Renaissance Club.

When the first Zionist settlers arrived in Israel, the land was virtually treeless. Since 1948, more than 53 million trees have been planted and Arbor Day, dedicated to reforestation, is a national holiday.

Dry ice is being replaced in industry by liquid carbon dioxide, which is easier to handle and reduces costs. But dry ice continues to be useful as a refrigerant in milk wagons and ice cream trucks.

Waving The Tattered Shirt

Sooner or later, a Democratic candidate for president gets around to the depression of the '30s.

It isn't as fashionable as it used to be to run against Herbert Hoover, but waving the tattered shirt of the depression is standard practice.

Sen Kennedy has started his shirt-waving in one of the most depressed areas of the country, central and southwestern Illinois. He recalled corn prices of 10 cents a bushel and high interest rates when he spoke in Springfield.

The implication was clear; it always is when a Democratic presidential candidate waves the shirt. The Republican party, which tends to reflect the point of view of the management of U.S. enterprise, is about to inflict hard times on wage earners; that is what Democrats imply— that Republicans like to make — wage earners squirm.

The other part of the implication is that Democrats know how to avert hard times. They will not let anything bad happen. They will take a firm grasp of the country's problems and solve them quick as a wink.

The United Nation's big task is how to close the circus and disband the sideshow freaks.

Nine New York firemen have been suspended for working on outside jobs after duty. All were working as chauffeurs or plant helpers in a brewery. It seems to us that a fireman might be a little slow going up a ladder after a day on a beer truck. And that after a night with a fire ax he might be no bargain making a beer delivery.

A hive or colony of bees is at its maximum population during the time of storing surplus honey. At that time, the average colony, roughly estimated, contains between 50,000 and 75,000 workers, one queen, and a few hundred to a thousand drones.

A jet fighter-bomber plane can make no more than 20 to 25 landings before it is necessary to change its tires.

Temper, Temper, Temper!

Labor Beats Drums, Quietly, In Texas

By Victor Riesel

DALLAS, TEXAS

To this Texas stranger it appears that John Kennedy can take the state only if the quiet perpetual political motion of several unions achieves their objective. What labor wants to deliver to the ticket of "JFK and LBJ" is about 125,000 voters who went for President Eisenhower four years ago.

Victor Riesel

This the labor leaders and their Democratic party partners believe, should swing the state. The President carried it by 226,000 votes last time. Not even the Republicans expect Richard Nixon to come near Mr. Eisenhower's popular pull. So the labor drive is to cut the GOP margin in half.

Had they done that in '56, they'd have kept Texas "regular." They didn't because they reckon a good many of their 500,000 to 600,000 AFL-CIO members went for the President. Now the objective is to keep their followers tight on the Democratic line.

Much of the precinct pounding is being done by the Auto Workers Union whose president is Walter Reuther.

The Detroit union chief, who at this writing has been campaigning so hard he worked himself into the hospital with a bad throat, promised Lyndon Johnson personally he'd deliver. And he is trying.

THIS HAPPENED one Thursday back in mid-August. Reuther was in Jack Kennedy's senatorial office discussing the congressional session.

Johnson, unaware that Reuther was with the front runner, walked in. Not wishing to intrude the Texan said to the union leader, drop in on me before you leave.

Reuther did — and promised that he would urge his people everywhere to work this time as never before. Not long after that, even the most militant of unions began talking of "Kennedy and Johnson" instead of just the top of the ticket.

Kennedy's opponents here are, therefore, running just as hard against Reuther as they are against the Massachusetts senator. But there are other active unions — the steel workers of Dave McDonald, the machinists of Al Hayes and some of the construction trades.

TEXAS LABOR doesn't beat the drums as the unions do up North. Here they are quiet men for many reasons.

This is the only state which ever was an independent republic. They don't like to get pushed around and that's the understatement of the century.

Labor knows it and doesn't want to give the impression of an invasion.

Typical was labor's preparation for John Kennedy's mid-September sortie here. The unions wanted big crowds to greet him and fill the 10,000 - seat Dallas Memorial Auditorium.

They and the Democrats swiftly compiled lists of rank-and-filers. The lists were typed, handwritten, scrawled — anything to put names down on paper.

The little rosters were distributed to union men and women who took them home and hit the phones. Thousands of calls were made.

Some 3 spoke to received five and six calls because of duplications.

THE CROWDS roared that day and more 9,500 filled the house. This could not have been done over the five or six phones then available in party headquarters.

Thus it will go right through to ballot time. Towards the end of October, the International Assn. of Machinists will run a victory dinner in a local hotel. Ten dollars a plate and a speech by Sen. Estes Kefauver.

They're working hard, these unions, unlike others in the rest of the West and Southwest. A survey shows that of the entire area only Texas, California, Montana and some sections of Oregon are pitching for the national Democratic ticket.

No one really seems to know why there's been so little follow through on the actual endorsements.

That's why the Texas labor story is the vital one in this part of the nation. A mighty big 24 electoral votes hang on it.

Want To Live Forever?

By Thomas R. Henry

A normal human life span of about 1,400 years may be possible.

It depends on learning and utilizing the secret of hibernation, the "long sleep" that bears and some other mammals take each winter.

This is a prospect, admittedly dim at present, evoked at an Office of Naval Research Symposium on Hibernation, attended by experts from all over the world.

Hibernation is only vaguely understood by physiologists. It is not, they agree, "sleep" as the term generally is understood. It is the reduction, in some way, of the body's vital processes to the point where they barely function — a sort of vacation from living.

Dr. Albert R. Dawe, of the Office of Naval Research staff, described hibernation this way:

"A hibernating animal survives on about 1000 of its normal food and oxygen. Within limits an animal in hibernation is relatively uninfluenced by radiation, sound light and temperature but is highly sensitive to tactile stimuli.

"If hibernation could be attained for man the space capsule in which he would fly, or the submarine in which he would ride, could be kept constantly at a low temperature, perhaps zero centigrade (freezing). Food and oxygen requirements might be only 100th that of an active man.

"In hibernation man's arrest of time might be such that he could possibly exist for about 20 normal lifetimes, or 1,400 years.

Some hibernating bats apparently may live 20 times longer than non-hibernating mammals of the same body weight. During hibernation a man would not suffer from radiation. Mammals endure tremendous doses without effect while hibernating. Upon returning to activity, however, they showed most of the usual signs of injury.

"Aside from space travel, a method may be developed for holding a man in suspended animation for future activity, medical treatment or other reasons."

There are, the report points out, many popular misconceptions on the subject.

It is generally believed, for example, that it is associated with the onset of cold. But, says the report, "cold does not cause hibernation nor do animals arouse from it in the spring because of greater warmth. However, cold applied to an animal about to hibernate increases the profundity of the torpor into which it will sink. But it is not restricted to season. It can occur at any time of the year.

Purely Personal

By Truman Twill

I never have known anyone who changed his mind about a presidential candidate, although I have known many persons who concealed the fact their minds were made up by going through the motions of free inquiry.

The wild cherry crop at our place this year was vintage quality, but the only thing we ever heard of to do with wild cherries was a dock-walloper beverage called "Wild cherry bounce"—and we had no recipe.

The most logical thing in auto design is to get all the usable space under one roof, where everything is accessible, as it is in the many varieties of "wagons" now being offered.

No man could laugh as spontaneously as Dwight Eisenhower laughs, unless he was genuinely happy in the presence of the crowds that have seen the famous Eisenhower grin all over the world.

I think often of the bad old days of football when overstimulated boys took off their helmets and played bareheaded to prove to themselves—and the fans—that they were putting all of themselves into the fray for the glory of dear Old Siwash.

It's a relief to have hat-wearing season come again, because that's where I keep memos and clippings—stuck into the crown of my hat, where I cannot help seeing them every time I put on the hat.

Something precious has been taken away from politics. No one ever promises any more to reduce taxes. All the boys now are ranged cheek by jowl on the same side of the oldest issue in public affairs. They all want more money to spend.

I wonder why it took so long for engineers to figure out that the public wanted auto mufflers and tail pipes that wouldn't have to be renewed.

A few years ago they made provisions for television rooms in new houses. A few years hence, smart architects will make provisions for non-television rooms, so people who still read will have a fighting chance.

Every time I see a man wearing a vest, now that vests are back in style, I think of the vests that mouldered away on hangers at the far end of the clothes closet during the years when a vest came with every suit, whether the purchaser wanted it or not.

One of the notable things about the 1960 presidential election is the way the religious issue reveals the nature of the areas where the issue sizzles and pops. They are the areas with the least inside plumbing.

New York City was reminded of the problem of hop-heads while the story of a $6 million heroin seizure by federal agents was still fresh. An 80-year-old charwoman was assaulted by two young men looking for money to buy themselves a fix. She beat them off and summoned police.

The bumps being taken by the British Labor party are an advance showing of the bumps that would be taken by an American Labor party, if labor politicians in this country struck out on their own.

Liberation Promises

By David Lawrence

What Do Kennedy's Words Mean?

Sen. Kennedy has promised that, if elected president, he will "announce to the world a specific course of action to aid the restoration of freedom in Poland and the captive nations."

David Lawrence

These words were read by Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan, Democrat, to a gathering in connection with the annual Pulaski Day parade in New York City last Sunday.

What does this promise mean? Will America take forceful action to "liberate" Poland and the other captive nations?

In view of the vehement criticism launched by Democratic party speakers in the 1952 presidential campaign and continued ever since against Dwight Eisenhower, as well as John Foster Dulles, because they spoke of "peaceful liberation" and "rolling back the Iron Curtain," the question now is whether the Democrats have forgiven the Republicans or whether the "action" which Sen. Kennedy promises is going to be subject to Republican attack on the ground that, if elected president, he might drag the United States into a war.

WHAT EISENHOWER said on Aug. 25, 1952, was this:

"We can never rest—and we must so inform all the world, including the Kremlin—that until the enslaved nations of the world have in the fullness of freedom the right to choose their own path, that then, and then only, can we say that there is a possible way of living peacefully and permanently with Communism in the world.

"We must tell the Kremlin that never shall we desist in our aid to every man and woman of those shackled lands who seeks refuge with us, any man who keeps burning among his own people the flame of freedom and who is dedicated to the liberation of his fellows."

Immediately, candidate Adlai Stevenson said in a speech in Michigan on Sept. 1 of that year:

"His (Eisenhower's) speech aroused speculation here and abroad that if he were elected, some reckless action might ensue in an attempt to liberate the peoples of Eastern Europe from Soviet tyranny."

Former President Truman, in a speech in West Virginia the next day, said:

"To try to liberate these enslaved people at this time might well mean turning these lands into atomic battlefields. . . .

"If the Republicans don't mean to give that armed support—and I feel sure they don't—then they are trying to deceive their fellow citizens at home and playing cruel, gutter politics with the lives of countless good men and women behind the Iron Curtain."

Mr. Dulles four days later took issue with Mr. Truman in a statement which said:

"It is, of course, absurd to suggest that Gen. Eisenhower anticipates invoking wholesale insurrection by unarmed slaves. Premature revolt would expose the patriotic people to liquidation. There are countless peaceful ways by which the task of the Russian despots can be made so unbearably difficult that they will renounce their rule. That was shown in Yugoslavia."

SEN. KENNEDY is today saying the same thing as Gen. Eisenhower and Mr. Dulles did in 1952. Mr. Kennedy, in his address to the Polish-American Congress at Chicago last Saturday, for example, declared:

"We must be willing to recognize growing divisions in the Communist camp, and be willing to encourage those divisions. My amendment to the Battle Act (a federal appropriation law) would permit the president to use our economic strength to promote peaceful change behind the Iron Curtain wherever this would help wean the so-called captive nations away from their Kremlin masters. . . .

"We must never—at any summit, in any treaty declaration, in our words or even in our minds—recognize Soviet domination of Eastern Europe."

THESE ARE strong words, and yet will they now be misinterpreted to imply that "peaceful liberation" means something else?

Two wrongs do not make a single right. The fact that Adlai Stevenson and other Democrats of prominence have, ever since 1952, maligned John Foster Dulles as having really promised military liberation of Eastern Europe, when his speeches permitted no such inference, should hardly be an example for Republican partisans to follow in the current campaign.

It is encouraging news that both parties in America are committed, at least by the utterances of their respective candidates, to do everything, short of the exercise of military force, to assist in the liberation of the enslaved peoples of Eastern Europe.

Matter Of Opposites

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

This would be a dull world if look-alikes faced each other. They haven't for some time, at home or abroad.

Instead, it's a matter of opposites. Take President Eisenhower and Premier Khrushchev, for instance, or the presidential candidates: Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Sen. John F. Kennedy.

Tubby Khrushchev is an actor, a highly charged, outgoing experimenter, unpredictable, ready to pop off in an assembly hall, on a sidewalk or on a balcony.

And he's no respecter of rules, as he demonstrated at the United Nations.

Eisenhower can throw up his arms to greet a crowd like a Tammany politician, grin in public as easily as Bob Hope, and pump a hand as hard as Khrushchev.

But he never seems at ease in a mob. He makes speeches from prepared texts, is as predictable as a clock, preserves his dignity, and follows the diplomatic rules.

And he's a conservative, not an experimenter. Witness his concern for balancing the budget.

Closer at hand the presidential candidates are opposites, too. Here Nixon is the actor, Kennedy the reserved one.

Like Jack Benny, Nixon always has his ear cocked for a pound from the audience, and can acknowledge it with a smile just as fast. Trained in debating, he never forgets how he looks—and sounds —in public.

He wraps himself in the flag a lot (as does Kennedy) and once he finds something he thinks the crowd likes he plays it over and over.

For example: He hadn't been mentioning his running mate, Henry Cabot Lodge, then did, got a big audience response, and then repeated it every place he went, with trimmings.

Kennedy also knows some things which have crowd appeal—like repeatedly mentioning his war record. But he's no actor. He doesn't even know how to use his hands well.

For example: He gestures endlessly with his right hand, up and down, to emphasize a point like a man chopping meat.

His speaking voice, after one listens for a while when he's making a speech, gets irritating. Yet, although he was bent on the presidency a long time, he only recently began to take advice on using his voice.

He's not only not a baby-kisser, he's not a very willing lady-kisser, as a recent photo showed when a woman admirer burst through a crowd to embrace him and he jerked back like a man about to be stabbed.

There always seem to be opposites. Just go back a bit—to President Truman when he ran against Thomas E. Dewey.

The overheated Truman, quick with a crack, was full of fire and damnation for Republicans. Dewey, stiff as a starched shirt, never learned to unbend, even when playing to a crowd.

John L. Lewis Day Set Today At Convention

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Today is John L. Lewis' day at the United Mine Workers convention.

Lewis, now 80, quit his 40-year rule as UMW president earlier this year. He has stayed away from UMW convention sessions to give the spotlight to his successor, Thomas Kennedy.

But Lewis was scheduled to deliver today what could be his swan song to the miners' union.

At the same time Kennedy indicated the UMW will remain neutral in the presidential campaign, despite the many Democratic and Republican endorsements the union has made in congressional and state contests.

Sen. John F. Kennedy, the Democratic presidential nominee, arrived here Wednesday night for a day of campaigning in the Cincinnati area. But UMW President Kennedy said he had no plans to visit the Democratic contender or to invite him to attend the UMW convention.

It was reported that supporters of Sen. Kennedy specifically asked the UMW to give their man a chance to speak to the miners' delegates, but that the request was turned down.

UMW officials asserted the union has had a long-standing policy against having political candidates address UMW convention sessions.

Lewis rather than his successor is reported mainly responsible for failing to give an endorsement to Sen. Kennedy. The new UMW president voted in the Pennsylvania delegation to the Democratic convention to give the party's nomination to Sen. Kennedy.

While Lewis may not be eager to throw political support to Sen. Kennedy, convention delegates appeared to be overwhelmingly for the Democratic nominee as opposed to Republican Richard M. Nixon.

UMW President Kennedy told reporters that the Labor Department in Washington has questioned the provisional status of the UMW's important District 50. Under a new labor law provision, union groups governed by trustees or appointed officers must be restored to membership control within 18 months, except under special circumstances.

Johnson To End New York Drive

NEW YORK (AP)—Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson confers today with leaders of the Independent Citizens for Kennedy and Johnson before ending his current campaign tour here on behalf of the Democratic ticket.

Sometime after noon, he will fly to Richmond, Va.

The Democratic vice-presidential candidate went barnstorming in Brooklyn Wednesday, returned to Manhattan to address 400 members of New York's Liberal party, then boarded a New Haven Railroad commuter train and conducted a hand-shaking session during the 40-minute run to Greenwich, Conn.

He was cheered by Liberal party leaders and workers after he addressed them at the Hotel Astor.

He denounced the GOP as favoring the "privileged few," adding: "Your party believes that all people should be equal before the law, and I do. Your party is for housing, education, Social Security. And I have voted for them every time."

More Reports Slated On Youth Fund Drive

The first progress report of the Knights of Columbus statewide youth fund drive was given by Harold McNicol at a meeting of Carroll Council 509 Tuesday night.

The second report will be heard in November and the final report in December, when the drive will close. The drive began Sept. 11. A report that it would end Monday is in error.

Disallowed Bonus Claims To Close

No reconsideration of disallowed Ohio Korean bonus claims will be made after 1960, Director Walter U. Bolton of the Korean Conflict Compensation Fund, announced today at Columbus.

Action of the commissioners of the Sinking Fund of the state ends any reinstatement of disallowed claims after Dec. 31, 1960.

This cut-off will affect 8,245 of the 241,057 claims filed. "Most of those disallowed — some 1,687— were due solely to failure to submit requested information to make a legal decision," Bolton explained.

"Only those veterans who feel that they can provide the additional information should request that their claims be reopened. There has been a consistent intention to see that every Korean veteran who meets the Constitutional requirements be paid," Bolton said, "so we will welcome all inquiries prior to Jan. 1, 1961, to make sure that no claim has been unjustly denied."

The fund has paid 232,740 bonus claimants $60,039,795.76 since June 1957. This includes $1,145,631.96 to 3,357 next-of-kin of deceased Ohio veterans who were residents of the state on their first day of active duty within the compensable period — June 25, 1950 and July 19, 1953 — and for one year prior to that date.

CANBERRA, Australia (AP)—Three U. S. U2 aircraft will operate from Australia next month to test nuclear fallout and radioactivity in the upper air south of the Australian continent.

Defense Minister Athol Townley announced that the high-level U2 jets would be part of a force of more than 20 U. S. aircraft that would take upper atmosphere samples at between 40 and 50 degrees south latitude.

NEW YORK (AP)—Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson confers today with leaders of the Independent Citizens for Kennedy and Johnson before ending his current campaign tour here on behalf of the Democratic ticket.

Sometime after noon, he will fly to Richmond, Va.

The Democratic vice-presidential candidate went barnstorming in Brooklyn Wednesday, returned to Manhattan to address 600 members of New York's Liberal party, then boarded a New Haven Railroad commuter train and conducted a hand-shaking session during the 60-minute run to Greenwich, Conn.

He was cheered by Liberal party leaders and workers after he addressed them at the Hotel Astor.

He denounced the GOP as favoring the "privileged few," adding: "Your party believes that all people should be equal before the law, and I do. Your party is for housing, education, Social Security. And I have voted for them every time."

More Reports Slated On Youth Fund Drive

The first progress report of the Knights of Columbus statewide youth fund drive was given by Harold McNicol at a meeting of Carroll Council 509 Tuesday night.

The second report will be heard in November and the final report in December, when the drive will close. The drive began Sept. 11. A report that it would end Monday is in error.

Disallowed Bonus Claims To Close

No reconsideration of disallowed Ohio Korean bonus claims will be made after 1960, Director Walter U. Bolton of the Korean Conflict Compensation Fund, announced today at Columbus.

Action of the commissioners of the Sinking Fund of the state ends any reinstatement of disallowed claims after Dec. 31, 1960.

This cut-off will affect 8,245 of the 241,057 claims filed. "Most of those disallowed — some 1,687— were due solely to failure to submit requested information to make a legal decision," Bolton explained.

"Only those veterans who feel that they can provide the additional information should request that their claims be reopened. There has been a consistent intention to see that every Korean veteran who meets the Constitutional requirements be paid," Bolton said, "so we will welcome all inquiries prior to Jan. 1, 1961, to make sure that no claim has been unjustly denied."

The fund has paid 232,740 bonus claimants $60,039,795.76 since June 1957. This includes $1,145,631.96 to 3,357 next-of-kin of deceased Ohio veterans who were residents of the state on their first day of active duty within the compensable period — June 25, 1950 and July 19, 1953 — and for one year prior to that date.

Hays Assailed For Spending

LISBON — Opening his campaign for U. S. representative from the 16th District Wednesday night, Walter Jay Hunston of Salem termed his opponent, Wayne L. Hays of Flushing, incumbent Democrat, "one of the most expensive congressmen in Washington."

Hunston spoke before the New Waterford and Lisbon Republican Clubs.

He said he waited until now to start his campaign because he couldn't "begin to compete financially against a man who has the advantages of the government franking privilege, U. S. Printing Office, NATO funds, and patronage jobs to hand out to a year-round political machine."

The Salem candidate said "Hays has greased and oiled his political machine with taxpayers' dollars to the place where he has left the Democrat Party, and many Jefferson-Jackson Democrats are calling and offering me their support."

Hunston charged Hays spent more than $35,000 in taxpayers' money to send at least 70,000 18th District householders 50-cent booklets about the Capitol, which were printed and mailed at government expense.

He also pointed out that Hays has two county Democrat chairmen on his Washington payroll.

Hunston concluded, "The basic issues in this campaign are: 1, foreign policy and handling the Communist threat; 2, economy in government, and 3, the economic development of the 18th District."

Scientist Outlines Reducing Program

"I can't help it, I eat very little but I just stay fat." If you have ever said something to that effect, pull up a chair, friend. When you know the facts, normal weight will no longer be out of reach for you. It will be something to work toward confidently.

By Ida Jean Kain

Dr. Charles Glen King, distinguished biochemist and executive director of the Nutrition Foundation in New York, in an interview with your dietitian, compared the pointer on the scales to the gas tank on your car.

"Just as an engine has a balance between its gas requirement and its mileage, so does every individual have to adjust a balance between the fuel furnished in food and the fuel used in energy. The principle is the same, and just as inescapable."

THE MOST important factors in a reducing program are an understanding of the simple relationship between the fuel provided in the food you eat and your energy expenditure. It is essential that you have full confidence that it is possible to reduce and that you can reduce," Dr. King affirmed.

Food is your fuel. The amount of fuel in any given food is expressed in calories. When the calories consumed in food eaten match your energy demands, your weight does not change. Excess calories are stored as fat.

"The trend of change on the scales is what everyone needs to watch," Dr. King suggested. "Weigh in the morning for then your weight is at its most uniform level."

What is your best weight? Dr. King suggests that in estimating your most desirable weight, bear in mind that the actual average adult body weight in America today is 15 pounds above what is considered most desirable in terms of vitality and long life. You can estimate your total calorie needs for each 24 hours on the basis of your activity.

Mark down your desirable weight and multiply that figure by 16 if you do sedentary work, by 20 if you are physically active, or 24 if you are a very active person. To reduce, subtract 500 to 1,000 calories from your daily calorie needs.

—:—

YOUR REDUCING rate is set by your calorie deficit. Here is what Dr. King had to say regarding the rate of weight loss. "It is important to take the weight off gradually.

"The body is not functioning at its best either in mental ability or in physical performance during rapid loss of body weight. In contrast, a gradual reduction is almost always accompanied by an increased sense of well-being and mental and physical alertness."

Dr. King suggested that you get a calorie chart so that you will know the calories in different foods and be able to plan your menus accordingly.

Send a long, self - addressed, stamped envelope for "Revised Calorie Chart." Address your request to Ida Jean Kain, in care of this newspaper.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Conversing In A Group Not Difficult

Many youths and some older persons write of their discomfort over not knowing what to say to make conversation in a group. They say they suffer still more when they observe how glibly others in the group may be talking. They write of their fear that they might say something the others present would ignore or think silly. Often an easy starter is reference to a program on TV which you may guess those present would be interested in. If you suppose them to be interested in national or world news, on the air or in the press, you might find a good starter there. Local and national sports often make good openers, too.

Dr. Garry Meyers

The more widely you read, the more you will have on hand to stir up conversation and to help keep it going well.

—:—

ONCE YOU hit on something which stirs up talking by others present, you may not have to say more unless you feel eager to do so. You can sit back and listen. Just remember that others who talk freely like to have good listeners.

If you feel anxious and timid about talking while in the group, you can soon make yourself warmly acceptable by animated, attentive listening. You soon may forget yourself then and add a brief, apt remark without really trying. It may say itself.

But when you torture yourself with "What am I going to say?" you are so concentrated on this matter and your feelings that you are deaf to what is being said by others. Then if you should desperately break in, your remarks might be wholly unrelated to the conversation. This may cause the rest not to respond to you as you had hoped, and cause you to feel more miserable.

WE PARENTS can prepare our children to be easy, comfortable, attractive conversationalists by setting a good example in the family group and when there are guests.

Especially in the family circle, let us encourage the spouse and each older child to converse freely. Our appreciative listening while others talk can help greatly. We should aim to guide the family talking so that no one talks too much or too little.

Vividly do I remember visiting often in a certain large family where the parents and older children made obvious efforts to make sure that even the youngest child had an opportunity to say something. This family sensed the preciousness of each individual.

My bulletins, "The Shy Child" and "The Lonely, Timid Youth", may be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

TOMORROW THE GREATEST
SIXTY-ONEDERFUL CHEVROLET

Here's the car that reads you loud and clear—the new-size, you-size '61 Chevrolet. We started out by trimming the outside size a bit (to give you extra inches of clearance for parking and maneuvering) but inside we left you a full measure of Chevy comfort. Door openings are as much as 6 inches wider to give feet, knees and elbows the undisputed right of way. And the new easy-chair seats are as much as 14% higher—just right for seeing, just right for sitting.

Once you've settled inside you'll have high and wide praises for Chevrolet's spacious new dimensions (in the Sport Coupes, for example, head room has been upped as much as 2 inches, and there's more leg room, too—front and rear). Chevy's new trunk is something else that will please you hugely—what with its deep-well shape and bumper-level loading it holds things you've never been able to get in a trunk before.

Yet, generously endowed as this car is with spaciousness and clean-etched elegance, it holds steadfastly to all the thrifty, dependable virtues Chevrolet buyers have come to take for granted. Your dealer's the man to see for all the details that make this sensationally sensible '61 Chevy a new measure of your money's worth.

There's never been a trunk like it before! The floor's recessed more than half a foot and the loading height is as much as 10½ inches lower.

IMPALA 4-DOOR SPORT SEDAN—one of five Impalas that bring you a new measure of elegance from the most elegant Chevies of all. The front door entrance height is nearly 2 inches higher.

NOMAD 9-PASSENGER STATION WAGON. You have a choice of six Chevrolet wagons, each with a one-piece cargo opening nearly 5 feet across.

BEL AIR 2-DOOR SEDAN. Like all '61 Chevrolets, brings you Body by Fisher soundness—more front seat leg room.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I have a very touchy problem and need to consult an outsider who does not know the people involved.

We live in an apartment building which has high-class tenants, generally speaking. The neighbors who live down the hall are the free-loading type. They are always borrowing something.

We have the newspaper delivered to our door every morning. These neighbors get up before we do. They take our paper and read it then put it back. I wouldn't mind except this morning someone spilled coffee on your column. What do you suggest?—DONE IN.

-:-

Dear Done: I admire your neighbors' taste in newspapers but I can't say much for their integrity.

There isn't much you can do unless you catch them flat-footed. Sacrifice a couple of hours sleep to accomplish it. Open the front door just in time to say, "Good morning, great paper, isn't it? I'd be happy to send a subscription salesman to see you."

The Silent Partner

Dear Ann: Whenever something appears in your column that appeals to my husband like advice to "cold wives" he throws it at me and says, "Read that!" Now, I wish you'd print something for me to throw at him for a change.

My husband's idea of dinner is to sit in dead silence and shovel in the food. Nobody is supposed to say a word.

Our daughter is 9 years old and she's always bursting with news of what happened during the day. The moment she opens her mouth he says, "Shut up and eat. No talking at the table."

If this isn't a good way to make a nervous wreck out of a child I miss my guess.

He says that's the way he grew up and that's the way it ought to be. Please comment. — JUST DISGUSTED.

-:-

Dear Just: This is fine — for Trappist monks. But for families dinner time is the ideal time to exchange ideas and enjoy one another's company.

If you feel this is making your daughter nervous have dinner with her first and encourage her to talk about the day's happenings.

Let Sourpuss eat by himself. Since he thinks mealtime is strictly for shoveling in the food, he won't mind shoveling alone.

Man Wanted

Dear Ann: This is not for you, it's for "Blessedly Single," the career gal who crowed about her complete contentment. She didn't want marriage.

Her big problem seemed to be overjealous friends who insist on fixing her up with men. "Everybody is trying to get me married off," she complained.

Well, I, too, am single but I don't see anything "blessed" about it. I'm lonesome and I want companionship. I'd give a lot to change my set of friends for hers!

The people in my social circle never go out of their way to introduce me to an eligible male even though they know I'm perishing for the sight of one.

Please tell me where these considerate people live — the ones who actually go out of their way to arrange a date for a single girl. I think I'd consider a move. — SOLOMENTE.

-:-

Dear Solo: Sorry, I never give out information about people who write. I'm printing your letter, however, as a reminder tomarried couples that the singletons sometimes need a friendly assist.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Year 4 In Space Age

Bread-And-Butter Space Science Being Led By U.S.

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Dawn of Year 4 of the space age finds:

The United States leading in bread-and-butter space science. The Soviet Union ahead in spectacular desserts.

U.S. satellites have pioneered the way to use space for better weather forecasts, global communications, precise ship navigation.

They have gleaned vast basic knowledge—more than the Soviets have disclosed from their probings at least—about radiations, meteoritic space dust, and other conditions in space.

The Soviet Union has hit the moon, photographed the back side of the moon, and bids to be first with a man into space.

The U.S.S.R. stunned the world three years ago Tuesday with Sputnik I. Her earlier development of powerful rockets gave her, and still gives her, the means of proud achievements.

A month later came Sputnik II, carrying the dog Laika, the first real public notice of serious and painstaking Soviet desire to send man beyond the shackles of gravity into space, to the moon or planets.

To date, the Soviet Union has put six satellites orbiting around the earth, one into the moon, another into orbit around the sun. She has recovered one satellite with a menagerie of animals to test safe human travel.

But 25 U.S. satellites have gone swinging around the earth—counting the new Courier 1B—and two others have become tiny planets of the sun. Two capsules have been recovered from space.

Speculations are that the Soviet Union is just around the corner from sending the first man into space. The United States still appears a year or more from this goal.

Fire Claims Boy 2½

WARREN, Ohio (AP) — Boys playing with matches started a fire that killed Donald Lee Marsh, 2½, Wednesday. Roger Marsh, 5, Donald's cousin, told sheriff's deputies he and Donald found some matches and lit straw in a shed at Donald's home south of Newton Falls. Roger ran out, but Donald and his puppy were blocked off by the flames and were killed. Donald called for his mother, Mrs. Marvin Marsh, but she was unable to get through the blaze to reach him.

Candidates Address 40 At Chester Rally

Over 40 attended a Chester Republican rally Tuesday night at the Carolina Ave. headquarters at which 8 candidates spoke briefly Lawrence Cline, city GOP chairman, said.

James Ravoira of Weirton, county party chairman, and William Mountjoy of Chester, member of the county GOP committee, also gave remarks.

Plans were made for a public meeting of the finance committee Tuesday night at 7:30 at the headquarters. Cline announced volunteers have been obtained to open the headquarters afternoons and evenings starting sometime next week.

Speed Limit Signs Sought

Shippingport Borough Council met Monday evening and adopted a resolution to ask the Pennsylvania State Highway Department to erect 40-mile per hour speed limit signs along Legislative Route 483 through the borough.

Council declared one councilman's office vacant due to the lack of attendance of Councilman Carl Johnson. State law says Council may declare a seat vacant if a member misses two consecutive meetings.

Johnson failed to answer a warning from Council and has missed five meetings in a row, it was reported. A new member probably will be appointed at Council's next meeting Nov. 7.

The blacktopping of 650 feet of Kerona Rd. was reported completed by the H. R. Allen Co. of Beaver. The contract was let at a special meeting Sept. 19. The cost of about $2,000 will be paid by the liquid fuel tax refunds of Beaver County.

William Burris, president, presided. William Green is secretary. Council met in the Community Building.

Beaver Homecoming Dance To Be Saturday

The annual Beaver Local homecoming dance will be held Saturday night at 8 (EST) at the high school near Williamsport.

A queen, already selected from a vote last week, will be announced and crowned at the homecoming football game Saturday afternoon at 2 with United Local High School.

Candidates for queen are Sue Layne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Layne of Calcutta, and Sandra McKenzie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester McKenzie of the Y. & O. Rd. Both are seniors.

Attendants will be Janet Veness of Calcutta, senior; Betty Evans of Elkton, junior; Margie Taylor of St. Clair Ave. Ext., sophomore, and Terry Holden of Echo Dell Rd., freshman.

Rescued From Fire

WARREN, Ohio (AP) — Police who went to tell August Mason of Niles of the death of his son and grandson arrived in time to rescue the 72-year-old man from a fire. Two patrolmen found Mason's room filled with smoke and his bed on fire Wednesday. After carrying him out and reviving him, the police told Mason his son, August 38, of Charleston, Pa. and his grandson, August Mark, 11, were killed in a traffic accident in New York. Mason apparently had fallen asleep while smoking, Niles police said.

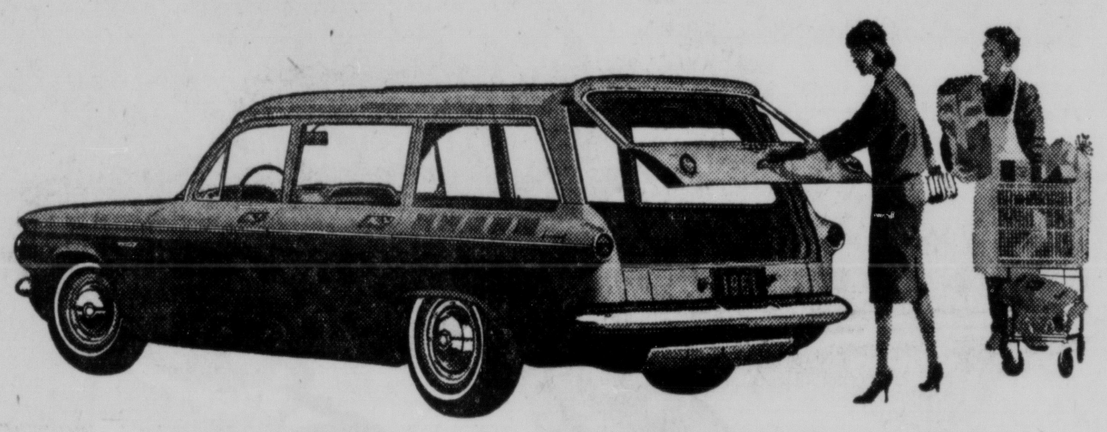
NEW '61 CHEVY CORVAIR

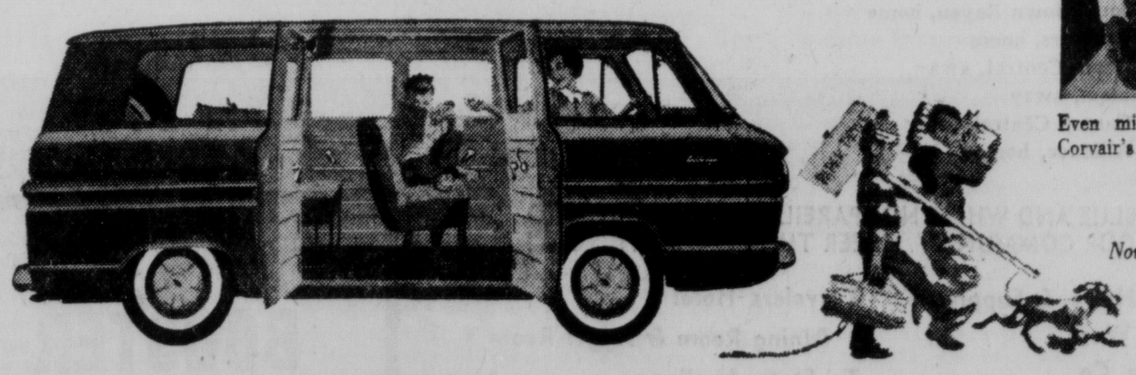
More space . . . more spunk and wagons, too!



The newest car in America: the CORVAIR 700 LAKEWOOD 4-DOOR STATION WAGON.

CORVAIR 700 CLUB COUPE. Like all coupes and sedans it has a longer range fuel tank.

CORVAIR 700 4-DOOR SEDAN. Provisions for heating ducts are built right into its Body by Fisher.



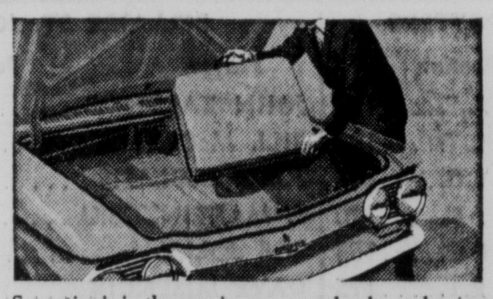
Now in production—the GREENBRIER SPORTS WAGON with up to twice as much room for people and things as ordinary wagons (shown with optional-at-extra-cost third seat in position).

Here's the new Chevy Corvair for '61 with a complete line of complete thrift cars.

To start with, every Corvair has a budget-pleasing price tag. And Corvair goes on from there to save you even more. With extra miles per gallon . . . quicker-than-ever cold-start warmup so you start saving sooner . . . a new extra-cost optional heater that warms everybody evenly. Riding along with this extra economy: more room inside for you, more room up front for your luggage (sedans and coupes have nearly 12% more usable trunk space).

And our new wagons? You'll love them—think they're the greatest thing for families since houses. The Lakewood Station Wagon does a man-sized job with cargo, up to 68 cubic feet of it. The Greenbrier Sports Wagon you're going to have to see—it gives you up to 175.5 cubic feet of space for you and your things. Compare that with any other U.S. wagon going!

Corvair's whole thrifty lineup gets its pep from a spunkier 145-cu.-in. air-cooled rear engine. Same rear-engine traction, same smooth 4-wheel independent-suspension ride. See the polished and refined 1961 Corvair first chance you get at your Chevrolet dealer's.



Spare tire is in the rear in coupes and sedans—leaving more luggage space up front.

Even middle-seat passengers sit pretty, thanks to Corvair's practically flat floor.

Farah Loses Legal Battle

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Warren rackets figure Mike Farah has lost a legal battle to have the Ohio Supreme Court reverse his assault and battery conviction.

The high court, in a ruling Wednesday, let stand Farah's conviction. Farah was fined $200 and sentenced to four months in jail after a fight last summer with Jean P. Blair, election board member and then Trumbull County Republican Chairman.

His sentence was delayed pending the outcome of his appeal to the Supreme Court. The fight took place outside Farah's home on June 7, 1959. Farah claimed it was over a $500 loan to Blair but the latter denied any loan and termed the argument political.

Prosecutor Charles H. Henderson told the court during oral arguments last week that Blair said he and Farah were going to discuss the firing of a girl from the board of elections and Farah wanted her put back on.

In other actions, the Supreme Court dismissed the appeal of a Cleveland man who claimed Local 38, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, misused $250,000 in assessments from about 1,000 members.

Hector Gardin, a maintenance electrician, appealed from Cuyahoga County Court decisions dismissing his suit on behalf of himself and other union members. Gardin said the assessment rate was three per cent of gross salaries between 1950 and 1954.

Gardin claimed in his appeal that wiremen electricians, who usually handle construction, got the benefit of paid-up dues while the money from maintenance electricians went into the union treasury to pay salaries and operating expenses.

He contended that the wiremen electricians were enjoying a free ride since they were no longer paying dues for the maintenance and operation of the local union's affairs.

The court let stand lower court decisions allowing benefits to Mrs. Elizabeth Mace of near Logan for the death of her husband, Marion, in 1953 after he had received workmen's compensation for injuries suffered while an employe of Natco Corp., in Haydenville.

6 Face Counts For Violence

BUCYRUS, Ohio (AP) — Six people face charges ranging from malicious destruction of property to assault and battery following a disturbance at the struck General Electric Co. plant here.

Four pickets, all from Columbus, and a man and wife who tried to pass through a picket line into the plant were arrested Wednesday.

The four pickets were charged in connection with a scuffle during which three automobiles were damaged. Three of them—James H. Gearhart, 32, Ira A. McCoy Jr., 26, and Fred Moore, 26 — were charged with assault and battery and released on bond.

The other two persons were charged with assault. They are Shetrone J. Topper and his wife, Margaret, of Bucyrus. The charges were filed by another picket—Richard K. Taylor of Warren—who said Topper brandished a .22-caliber revolver as the latter tried to drive his wife to work. Taylor also said the woman hit him.

The disturbance brought a charge from a GE official in Cleveland that the International Union of Electrical Workers was using "imported strangers" as pickets around the Bucyrus plant.

H. L. Weiss, general manager of the GE lamp division, in a telegram to David J. Fitzmaurice, president of IUE Local 707 and IUE District 7 in Cleveland, charged that "vicious violence and vandalism" was being inflicted at Bucyrus by pickets imported "from Westinghouse plants in Mansfield, Warren and Columbus . . ."

"This is not action by General Electric employes," Weiss continued, "since the aggressors neither work nor live in Bucyrus. Many employes represented by your union are afraid to go home under threats from these imported strangers. Several of the law violators have been arrested. However, the limited facilities of the Bucyrus police are not capable of coping with such extreme and continuing violence."

Police said pickets kicked in doors of two automobiles and broke a window in the third as drivers attempted to report for work.

Union leaders, company officials and Bucyrus mayor Rollen Koons reportedly reached an agreement Tuesday limiting pickets to six at each gate. Mayor Koons said the union broke the agreement. The union said the agreement was broken because deputies were added to the police force guarding the area.

New Chrysters Are Placed On Display By Two Dealers

The 1961 Chryslers are now on display at Mackall Motors, Inc., 1503 Pennsylvania Ave., East Liverpool, and Grafton Motors, 327 Main St., Wellsville. The model above is the Newport four-door sedan.

The Chrysler grille is wider at the top this year and narrower at the bottom and its upswept shape is further enhanced by the headlights, parking lights and the new horizontally-lined bumper. The canted headlights are set against a textured background of embossed anodized aluminum, surrounded by deep chrome recesses. Parking lights can be seen from front and sides.

A new four-door hardtop roof features two longitudinal ribs running from windshield to the back window. This provides the superstructure with a sharply chiseled appearance.

New and different detail treatments are found in the rear styling. The deck lid, rear bumper, tail lamps, back-up lights and lower back panel are all new this year. The traditional Flight-Sweep deck lid is available on all models as an option in 1961.

The Chrysler 300-G sports car will be introduced separately.

Youth Due At School For Feeble-Minded

CINCINNATI (AP) — George Henry Calton, 18, of nearby Lockland, will be returned to the state school for feeble-minded at Orient as a result of his arrest Monday on a charge of attempted train derailment.

Probate Judge Chase M. Davies ordered the commitment Wednesday after testimony that Calton placed a railroad tie in the path of a Baltimore & Ohio passenger train inbound from Detroit. The train hit the tie but the locomotive remained on the track.

Testimony showed Calton was arrested in 1958 on an arson charge, was committed to Orient but later was spirited away by his mother.

GOP Nominee Turns To South

Philadelphia Gives Nixon Biggest Turnout Of Drive

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon dips into the South today afloat on a cloud of enthusiasm steamed up by the presidential campaign's biggest turnout in Philadelphia Wednesday night.

The Republican presidential nominee displayed new confidence in the outcome of his contest with his Democratic opponent, Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts, as he winged into the doubtful border state of Tennessee.

Here he had a date at Memorial Square before taking off for Cleveland, Ohio. There Kennedy's street crowds of 250,000 had been tops until Nixon drew somewhere around a police-estimated 500,000 in Philadelphia, which used to be Republican but has been Democratic in recent years.

A crowd which left about 3,000 empty seats in Philadelphia's 14,000-seat Convention Hall—scene of many national conventions — made up in stamping enthusiasm what it lacked in numbers.

There is no denying, however, that Nixon had scored a 10-strike in Pennsylvania, with its 32 electoral votes.

The Pennsylvania welcome was doubly satisfactory to the vice president after a day in New York that found some of those who listened to his standard campaign speech not so responsive as they have been elsewhere.

Nixon told New York listeners that he talks the same way about civil rights in the North and South. But he said his opponents "talk out of both corners of their mouths" on the issue.

This was true, he said, because Kennedy and his running mate, Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, do not see eye-to-eye on civil rights.

Nixon said in his Philadelphia speech that the Republicans had "initiated in 1957 the first civil rights law enacted in 80 years." He did not mention that Northern Democrats had provided the margin of congressional votes for enactment of this statute. Johnson has contended that no law would have been passed but for his efforts as Senate majority leader.

"I am proud to say that I have a running mate who will stand with me instead of against me on this issue," Nixon said.

The vice president, however, eliminated from his Philadelphia speech a quotation attributed to Johnson about civil rights.

The quotation was included in prepared excerpts which Nixon's press aides had released earlier in New York. It quoted Johnson as having said: "I am not now and never have been an advocate of civil rights. I don't think I ever will be."

Nixon's press secretary, Herbert G. Klein, said the source of the quote was a column written by Drew Pearson. He said the column was published in March, 1960, and that it "referred to an incident which Pearson said took place during the 1956 Democratic National Convention."

The excerpts were given newspapermen in New York and many of them wrote their morning papers stories on the basis they would be delivered in Philadelphia. Just after the excerpts were handed out Klein was asked where and when Johnson was alleged to have made the statement. Klein investigated and released the elimination statement in Philadelphia.

Police Officer Held In Fatal Shooting

GREENUP, Ky. (AP)—Sheriff's officials are holding a Russell, Ky., police officer, Jack Carney, for questioning Wednesday in the fatal shooting of Carl Crum, 45, of Ashland.

Sheriff Beckham Montgomery said both men were good friends.

Crum was shot at an auto repair shop on U.S. 23 on the outskirts of Flatwoods. He died a few hours later at a hospital near Ashland. Hospital attendants said Crum was struck in the side by a .38 caliber bullet.

The sheriff said Carney called to report the shooting and quoted Carney as saying the shooting occurred during a drinking bout.

Carney is the son of a Russell city councilman.

Doctors Seek Cause Of Lingering Infection

NORRISTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Doctors sought today to determine the cause of a lingering infection after Philip Berkes Jr., 38, who was bitten on the finger by a lion while visiting a zoo Sept. 24, had more of his left arm amputated.

Berkes Wednesday had his arm amputated near the shoulder at Montgomery Hospital. The lower part of the arm was amputated last Saturday.

6 Face Counts For Violence

BUCYRUS, Ohio (AP) — Six people face charges ranging from malicious destruction of property to assault and battery following a disturbance at the struck General Electric Co. plant here.

Four pickets, all from Columbus, and a man and wife who tried to pass through a picket line into the plant were arrested Wednesday.

The four pickets were charged in connection with a scuffle during which three automobiles were damaged. Three of them—James H. Gearhart, 32, Ira A. McCoy Jr., 26, and Fred Moore, 26 — were charged with assault and battery and released on bond.

The other two persons were charged with assault. They are Shetrone J. Topper and his wife, Margaret, of Bucyrus. The charges were filed by another picket—Richard K. Taylor of Warren—who said Topper brandished a .22-caliber revolver as the latter tried to drive his wife to work. Taylor also said the woman hit him.

The disturbance brought a charge from a GE official in Cleveland that the International Union of Electrical Workers was using "imported strangers" as pickets around the Bucyrus plant.

Route 7 Work Seen Ahead

Relocation of Route 7 at the horseshoe curves at Williamsport is ahead of schedule, with 65 per cent of the work completed, William McKenna, Ohio Department of Highways Division 11 deputy, announced today.

The 1.2-mile project, designed to eliminate the dangerous curves, was originally slated to be finished by August 1961.

Work was started last month on relocation of State Route 46 between East Palestine and New Waterford, according to McKenna in a summary of work now underway. First work is on relocating the channel and bridge of Bull Creek.

Bridge construction on Route 344 at Leetonia is about 80 per cent complete, he added.

Recently completed were widening and resurfacing of Route 644 between Salineville and Summitville and Route 170 for 5 miles between East Palestine and Fredericktown.

Census Taker Must Learn Tricks Fast

WINDHOEK, South-West Africa (AP) — A census taker has got to learn tricks fast when he is assigned to count African bushman, Koot Theron learned.

Theron figured the best way to get the bushmen to co-operate was to take along gifts of tobacco and light liquor. But the gift-giving inspired a lot of the population to come around to be counted several times.

So Theron resorted to making a mark with indelible ink on the arm of each bushman he counted. It worked. Not only was the ink practically impossible to remove but water is too precious in arid South-West Africa to use for washing.

Sen. Kennedy Speaks Today In Cincinnati

CINCINNATI (AP)—U.S. Sen. John F. Kennedy, Democratic presidential nominee, invaded this stronghold of Republican conservativism and home of the late Sen. Robert A. Taft today for rest and a round of three speaking engagements in the greater Cincinnati area.

He arrived late Wednesday night by air from Louisville, Ky., where a speech before a $50-a-plate dinner crowd climaxed a day of hustings through Indiana. Lateness of the hour and inclement weather kept greeters at the airport to only a few hundred; that, and a change of plans which until mid-Wednesday contemplated Senator Kennedy's arrival today, rather than last night.

That switch made it necessary for local party leaders to call off plans for a motorcade leading from Greater Cincinnati airport, located 14 miles southwest of the city, in Kentucky.

Under revamped plans, the Democratic nominee, joined by Ohio Governor Michael DiSalle and Ohio Democratic Chairman William Coleman, will cross the Ohio River for a 4:30 p.m., appearance on the courthouse lawn in Covington, then hurry back to Cincinnati for another open - air speech on Cincinnati's downtown Government Square. That event is billed as the first downtown outdoor political rally held here in 25 years. Police are expecting a crowd of from 25,000 to 40,000 to jam the area—at about the time thousands of office workers head homeward.

After the Government Square rally, Senator Kennedy will address a $100 a plate Democratic party dinner in a nearby hotel, and depart almost immediately for Washington, D. C.

When he left the store a man stuck a gun in his back, took $1,100 from him and made him remove his clothes.

Bailey was left standing in his underwear.

Saturday Talk Set

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Missouri Republican Rep. Richard Boling will speak at a meeting of the Tri-State Farmers for Kennedy-Johnson Committee at Bowling Green State University Oct. 8. The group has announced. The tri-state area meeting includes Ohio, Michigan and Indiana.

His outstanding 4-H Club record will be submitted in national competition with 4-H Dairy members from other states for a college scholarship, Burger said.

Bill Skeels has been selected as an alternate to Founders Camp next summer in Michigan. The camp is rated second to National 4-H Conference in priority of awards available to oustanding 4-H members. Appeal Slated On Retroactive Jobless Pay Hike

ELYRIA, Ohio (AP)—Attorneys for General Industries Co. say they will appeal a common pleas judge's ruling that the firm must pay retroactively a $9 weekly increase in unemployment compensation.

Judge John D. Pincura ruled Wednesday on the action in which General Industries attacked the claim of an employe, Clarence H. Imhof, who was laid off last year. Imhof was drawing $33 a week in jobless benefits when on Oct. 16 a new law went into effect increasing such benefits by $9 a week.

General Industries claimed a provision of the law making it retroactive was unconstitutional and contested Imhof's claim for $180 for 20 weeks.

The claim was allowed by the state Bureau of Unemployment Compensation from whose ruling General Industries appealed to the Lorain County Common Pleas Court.

Some 25,000 such claims, totaling more than $5 million have been made in Ohio.

Sen. Kennedy Speaks Today In Cincinnati

CINCINNATI (AP)—U.S. Sen. John F. Kennedy, Democratic presidential nominee, invaded this stronghold of Republican conservativism and home of the late Sen. Robert A. Taft today for rest and a round of three speaking engagements in the greater Cincinnati area.

He arrived late Wednesday night by air from Louisville, Ky., where a speech before a $50-a-plate dinner crowd climaxed a day of hustings through Indiana. Lateness of the hour and inclement weather kept greeters at the airport to only a few hundred; that, and a change of plans which until mid-Wednesday contemplated Senator Kennedy's arrival today, rather than last night.

That switch made it necessary for local party leaders to call off plans for a motorcade leading from Greater Cincinnati airport, located 14 miles southwest of the city, in Kentucky.

Under revamped plans, the Democratic nominee, joined by Ohio Governor Michael DiSalle and Ohio Democratic Chairman William Coleman, will cross the Ohio River for a 4:30 p.m., appearance on the courthouse lawn in Covington, then hurry back to Cincinnati for another open - air speech on Cincinnati's downtown Government Square. That event is billed as the first downtown outdoor political rally held here in 25 years. Police are expecting a crowd of from 25,000 to 40,000 to jam the area—at about the time thousands of office workers head homeward.

After the Government Square rally, Senator Kennedy will address a $100 a plate Democratic party dinner in a nearby hotel, and depart almost immediately for Washington, D. C.

Ex-Policeman Robbed, Forced To Undress

PONTIAC, Mich. (AP) — William Bailey, 38, a former policeman, went to the drugstore to get some cough medicine Wednesday night.

When he left the store a man stuck a gun in his back, took $1,100 from him and made him remove his clothes.

Bailey was left standing in his underwear.

Saturday Talk Set

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Missouri Republican Rep. Richard Boling will speak at a meeting of the Tri-State Farmers for Kennedy-Johnson Committee at Bowling Green State University Oct. 8. The group has announced. The tri-state area meeting includes Ohio, Michigan and Indiana.

LISBON—William Skeels, 17, and James Skeels, 19, sons of Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Skeels of R. D. 4, have been honored by the state 4-H awards committee for their work in 4-H activities.

James Skeels has been selected as the state's outstanding dairy project member, according to Joseph Burger, county extension agent in 4-H work.

A member of the Just Rite 4-H Club for 11 years, he has carried on 47 4-H projects, receiving 42 A's and 5 B's. In addition to 11 years of dairy, he has also carried tractor maintenance, forestry, pony, rope, automobile care and safety, steer and junior leadership projects.

He has held every 4-H office and served on several committees each year. His activities included 8 years of 4-H camp, camp counselor 2 years, countywide Tractor, Dairy and Junior Leadership Clubs, judging team, tractor rodeo, health and safety, talent, demonstration and square dance contests. He was a member of the Junior Fair royal court in 1958 and was selected as Junior Fair king in 1959. He was the county delegate to the State Conservation Camp and is past president of the County Junior Leadership Club and is president of the Junior Fair Board.

Along with his father and brother, Bill, the Skeels work a 320-acre dairy farm which includes 75 head of cattle in addition to doing custom work in the area.

Jim will receive an all-expense paid trip to the 39th National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago Nov. 26-Dec. 2. The trip is provided by the Oliver Corp. His outstanding 4-H Club record will be submitted in national competition with 4-H Dairy members from other states for a college scholarship, Burger said.

Bill Skeels has been selected as an alternate to Founders Camp next summer in Michigan. The camp is rated second to National 4-H Conference in priority of awards available to oustanding 4-H members. Bill has been a member of the Just Rite Club 9 years and has carried on 40 4-H projects, receiving 34 A's and 6 B's. Projects included dairy, saddle horse, tractor maintenance, band, outdoor cookery, forestry, steer feeding and junior leadership. Richard E. Guggenheim, Cincinnati shoe executive and chairman of the commission said Wednesday that numerous instances of racial discrimination had been uncovered in Ohio hotels, motels, restaurants and places of amusement in 14 months that the group has been operating.

Appeal Slated On Retroactive Jobless Pay Hike

ELYRIA, Ohio (AP)—Attorneys for General Industries Co. say they will appeal a common pleas judge's ruling that the firm must pay retroactively a $9 weekly increase in unemployment compensation.

Judge John D. Pincura ruled Wednesday on the action in which General Industries attacked the claim of an employe, Clarence H. Imhof, who was laid off last year. Imhof was drawing $33 a week in jobless benefits when on Oct. 16 a new law went into effect increasing such benefits by $9 a week.

General Industries claimed a provision of the law making it retroactive was unconstitutional and contested Imhof's claim for $180 for 20 weeks.

The claim was allowed by the state Bureau of Unemployment Compensation from whose ruling General Industries appealed to the Lorain County Common Pleas Court.

Some 25,000 such claims, totaling more than $5 million have been made in Ohio.

Plum Among Top Passers

CLEVELAND (AP) — Statistics for the first two National Football League games show Cleveland's Milt Plum is providing the Browns an excellent passing attack to go with their fine running offense.

Fullback Jimmy Brown leads the league in rushing, and halfback Bobby Mitchell is third, not far behind Green Bay's Jim Taylor. All three have gained more than 205 yards in two games and other NFL runners all trail 60 yards or more under that figure.

Less expected, the therefore more gratifying, is Plum's stackup with other NFL passers. Under the new rating system, he ranks third behind Bobby Layne of Pittsburgh and Baltimore's John Unitas, who are 1-2.

The passers are given points on completions, yards gained and touchdown passes—three phases in which Layne and Unitas overshadow the Browns' quarterback.

But points also are given for percentage of completions, percentage of interceptions and average gain in yards, and in these three departments Plum was a league leader.

He and George Shaw of the New York Giants are tied among the regular passers with no interceptions. The fourth-ranked Shaw, with 67.9 per cent completions, comes closest to Plum's 76 per cent. And Plum's average 15 yards per pass, compares with Layne's 12.7 yards, the second best.

Put the rushing of Brown and Mitchell and the passing of Plum together and you have what in the first two games of the schedule has proved to be the league's top ground-gaining offense. Pittsburgh is second, but three-fourths of its gains were on Layne's passes and its ground attack was nothing special.

Wednesday the Browns worked on several new plays and some defensive maneuvers designed to put more pressure on the passer.

BOUNTIFUL, Utah (AP)—Two men casually pushed a helicopter up to the pumps at Neil Richins' gas station here Wednesday and ordered him to "fill 'er up." It took 31 gallons, but they flew away without offering to pay.

Richins said the men—he didn't get their names—told him they were en route from Idaho to Texas on a crop-dusting job.

PITTSBURGH (AP)—It must be true what rival National League managers have been saying about Pittsburgh.

"They drive you crazy with their constant hitting and running," said Solly Hemus of the St. Louis Cardinals.

"They play smart, heads-up baseball," said Fred Hutchinson of Cincinnati. "They know what they're doing all the time. As a team, it's a manager's delight.

"They take advantage of every break," said Chuck Dressen of Milwaukee. "And they make very few mistakes themselves."

The Pirates made prophets out of their fellow National Leaguers and believers out of the cynics Wednesday beating New York with more ease than the 6-4 score might indicate. Whether they can do it again in game No. 2 today remained to be seen. In any event, the Pirates demonstrated before 36,676 cash customers at Forbes Field that they were no fluke champions, making the odds-makers wonder whether they hadn't underrated them after all.

A 13 to 10 underdog before Wednesday's game, the Pirates have become an 11 to 10 favorite to win the Series. Today's battle before another sellout crowd, featuring another right-handed duel, between Bob Friend (18-12) of the Pirates and Bob Turley (9-3) of the Yankees, is rated even money.

Except for the pitchers, neither manager planned any lineup or batting order changes. The weatherman predicted another perfect playing day, with sunny skies and temperature in the 60's. Game time is 1 p.m., Eastern Daylight Time.

It was all Pittsburgh Wednesday. The Pirates outplayed, outfielded, outran, out-maneuvered and outsmarted the Yankees. They were outhit but not outslugged even though the American League champions outhomered them two to one.

Pittsburgh walloped three extra base hits to New York's two. The Pirates stole two bases to none for the Yankees. They were guilty of no errors to two for their rivals. And Pittsburgh Manager Danny Murtaugh even borrowed a page from Casey Stengel's book by going to his bench in the late innings for defensive purposes and to the mound in tense moments for counsel to his pitchers.

In the first inning, Roger Maris walloped a home run off 20-game winning right-hander Vern Law to give the Yankees a 1-0 lead. But the Pirates went right to work on starter Art Ditmar, driving him from the mound before he could get the second out.

Billy Virdon drew a walk. On the first pitch to Dick Groat, Virdon waited until catcher Yogi Berra was about to toss the ball back to the mound and started a delayed steal of second. Berra, after a second's hesitation, threw to second but nobody was there to cover. The unexpected maneuver caught the Yankees completely off guard. Berra's throw went into center field and Virdon raced to third. He scored a few moments later when Dick Groat typically slashed an opposite field double to right.

Bob Skinner singled Groat home to give the Pirates a 2-1 lead. The National League champs had still another trick up their sleeve. With Dick Stuart at bat, Skinner began walking toward second as Ditmar stepped on the rubber and just kept going, easily beating Berra's frantic heave which was high and away.

Skinner scored with the third run a moment later on Bob Clemente's single to center.

Pittsburgh's other runs came on Bill Mazeroski's two-run homer off Jim Coates in the fourth and Virdon's run-scoring double off Duke Maas in the sixth. Only Ryne Duren stopped the Pirates.

The best defensive play came in the fourth and it was made by the Pirates. Trailing 3-1, the Yankees seemed ready to mount a rally when Maris singled and Mickey Mantle walked. Berra drove a 420-footer to deep right center but Virdon made a brilliant glove-hand catch a stride or two from the wall. That was the key play of the game since Bill Skowron followed with a single to score Roger Maris.

Law, tagged for 10 hits, lost his stuff in the eighth and Murtaugh summoned relief ace Elroy Face from the bullpen after Hector Lopez and Maris singled with nobody out. The little right-hander struck out Mantle with a sinker pitch, induced Berra to fly out and fanned Skowron with a fast ball.

Elston Howard got a pinch hit two-run homer in the ninth to cut the Pirates' margin to 6-4.

But Lopez obligingly grounded into Pittsburgh's third double play to end the game.

Kansas Eyes Upset Over Iowa State

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

Kansas seems to be bettering its football education the hard way — on Saturday afternoon when it has to stop some of the best offensive combinations on the college gridiron. And the lesson for this Saturday is Iowa State, and terrible twosome of tailback Dave Hoppmann and fullback Tom Watkins.

The Jayhawks had all the right answers for tough Texas Christian 21-7, and more than enough in a 41-0 rout of Kansas State.

Last week, they barely lost to Syracuse, now the nation's No. 1 team, 14-7 and will need at least as many right answers to do the job Saturday against the Cyclones.

Hoppmann leads the nation's rushers with 431 yards. Watkins was No. 2 in 1959 among the rushers, and the Cyclones' opponents so far have been keying their defenses to stop him.

Columbia's injury list went to six when guard Tony Day dislocated an elbow while Dartmouth lost tackle Mike Mooney and end Connie Persels for three weeks with knee injuries.

Both Maryland and Illinois got key players off the injury list. The Terps' quarterback Dick Novak, was pronounced fit after a hand injury while halfback Joe Krakowski shook off injuries from last week and will play against Ohio State.

Purdue may miss quarterback Maury Guttman with a leg infection when it meets Wisconsin. The Air Force, which plays Missouri, lost linebacker Dick Schoof for three weeks with a shoulder dislocation.

Ohio U. Rated No. 1 In Nation

By The Associated Press

Ohio University, located at Athens, Ohio, is the top team in small college football, an Associated Press poll determined today.

The AP, which has been picking small college All-America teams since 1934, is starting a weekly rating of the elevens in this division this year and to Buckeye state Bobcats goes the distinction of heading the first list.

Other teams in the top ten are Lenoir Rhyne of Hickory, N. C., Lehigh of Bethlehem, Pa., Massachusetts University, Witworth of Spokane, Wash., Texas A & I, San Francisco State, Western Illinois of Macomb, Muskingum of New Concord, Ohio, and Florida A & M of Tallahassee.

The teams were picked by an AP board of experts, made up of one man in each of the eight NCAA districts.

Of the honored ten, all sport unbeaten records except Texas A & I which was tied by Trinity of Texas. Trinity, in turn, held Texas A & M to a 14-0 score last weekend.

But beating the big brethren is not unheard of among these small giants. Ohio University already has polished off Dayton and Toledo, which are rated major colleges by the NCAA, and this week takes on Boston University. Massachusetts dumped Harvard, favorite for the Ivy League crown.

Harold S. Vanderbilt invented the game of contract bridge in 1925.

Virdon's Grab In 4th Proved Turning Point

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A great catch by Bill Virdon against the green wall of Forbes Field 420 feet from home plate proved to be the turning point of the first 1960 World Series game.

It robbed Yogi Berra of the Yankees of an extra base hit that probably would have scored Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle and knotted up Wednesday's game at 3-3 in the fourth inning.

The Pirates, leading, 3-1 at the time, went on to win 6-4 although Maris scored in the fourth on Bill Skowron's single.

"I probably have made better catches but none which gave me a greater thrill," said Virdon.

Both Virdon, the center fielder, and Roberto Clemente, the right fielder, raced for the smash off Berra's bat. Virdon came down with it, bumping into Clemente and cutting the back of his right shoe.

"I thought I could get it all the time," Virdon said, "I had a good bead on the ball."

Other Major Teams Would Like Jensen

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Boston Red Sox trade talks designed to acquire a shortstop bogged down today on the subject of Jackie Jensen.

Manager Mike Higgins said his talks to date at the World Series gathering of baseball men have included Jensen, the slugging outfielder who recently announced he will end his one-year retirement and return to the Sox.

Higgins has discovered the other teams all want Jensen as part of a trade.

The field pilot earlier had said all his players were available if the right deal was offered and that his primary job was to strengthen the seventh-place Sox at short and second base.

"Everyone has a shortstop to give but they won't guarantee how well their shortstop can play," Higgins explained. "At the same time they want to talk very big about Jensen. But I don't think we can afford to give him up."

'Yanks Like Any Other Club'-Face; But They Can Scare You, Groat Says

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates, confident but not cocky after winning the opening game of the World Series, found out a couple of things about the New York Yankees that they suspected all along.

"They're like any other club," said Elroy Face. "They can be pitched to."

"And they can scare you," said Dick Groat.

It was Face, the scrawny relief pitcher who helped the Bucs get fat after 33 years between pennants, who saved the victory for starting pitcher Vernon Law. The little right-hander got rid of Yankee power with two on and none out in the eighth inning by striking out Mickey Mantle, retiring Yogi Berra on a fly, and fanning Bill Skowron.

In the ninth, pinch-hitter Elston Howard tagged him for a two-run homer, but Face then ended it by getting Hector Lopez to hit into a doubleplay.

"We knew they had power," said Groat, pivot man at short on the wrapup doubleplay, "but they strike so fast!

"You go into the ninth inning and you figure you've got it made. And then bing, bing, bing! you're in trouble."

The Pirates also were in trouble in the fourth inning, when Bill Virdon's running catch of Berra's long drive to right center saved a 3-1 lead. That catch, with Virdon reaching over Roberto Clemente as they bumped slightly, was the turning point.

Hardly any of the Yankees saw Virdon in the first inning, when he pulled a delayed steal of second that caught Yankee shortstop Tony Kubek napping. Kubek drew the error—after convincing the scorer that the responsibility was his, not Berra's—when no one was at second to take the throw by the Yankee catcher.

Pitching was the Yankees' problem. "It was the type of game, I figure, where if we get any kind of pitching we win it because we got four runs," said Manager Casey Stengel.

"I pinch hit for (Clete) Boyer in the second inning because I'm trying to get even. How the hell do you know in the eighth or ninth inning you're going to get a man on base?

"The best thing that club did was get my left fielder (Lopez) out and you know he's the best to hit to right field. But they get him out."

Pittsburgh Pupils Get 'Colds'—Wonder Why?

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A wave of "colds" hit Pittsburgh school children Wednesday for the opening of the World Series.

One school in the city had 363 students absent, another had 172 and a third had 126.

Mr. K Sticks Finger Into World Series

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Soviet Union's Premier Khrushchev is not content with busting up summit conferences — now he's sticking his plump finger in our World Series.

Indirectly, at least.

President Eisenhower, a keen baseball fan, had fully intended taking in at least a couple of World Series games—one here and one in New York—but had to cancel because of Khrushchev's pyrotechnics in the United Nations.

"The President was all ready to come but decided the situation in the U.N. was so tender he couldn't take the time off," said Commissioner Ford Frick today.

The commissioner said he had received no requests from the barnstorming presidential candidates—Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Sen. John F. Kennedy — for Series seats.

"I know the vice president is an avid fan and Jack Kennedy may be one also," Frick said, "but both probably are staying away for fear of being accused of using the Series as a publicity prop.

"I'm just as happy about it. I don't like to see baseball get entangled with politics of any kind."

The baseball boss' seat at Forbes Field—on the first row just to the left of the Pittsburgh dugout—is quite different from the one he occupied in the last World Series between the New York Yankees and Pittsburgh Pirates 33 years ago.

In 1927, he was a sports writer for the old New York Journal and it was his job to report the Yankees' four-game sweep.

The German phrase "Mein Kampf" means "my battle."

Navy Shows A Little Bit Extra After Last Victory

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP)—Coach Wayne Hardin says Navy found out in toppling Washington last week that "we have somebody else out there besides Joe Bellino."

The coaches also learned, he added, that this year's team has "a little bit extra" in effort and determination to win ball games that last year's team lacked.

"In a couple of the games we lost last year, we needed just a little bit that wasn't there," Hardin told a news conference Wednesday.

"It is this year. Take our stopping Bob Schloeredt (Washington quarterback) on the 1-yard line when he was headed for a touchdown from the 5. Last year he would have made it. It's on plays like that you've got to have a little extra."

Hardin said the chief development of the Navy squad has been as a team. He noted that it started the year with one big star — halfback Joe Bellino — and he was regarded as about the whole show.

"But these other kids have really come along," Hardin said, "and you never heard of some of them before this year."

'Yanks Like Any Other Club'-Face; But They Can Scare You, Groat Says

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates, confident but not cocky after winning the opening game of the World Series, found out a couple of things about the New York Yankees that they suspected all along.

"They're like any other club," said Elroy Face. "They can be pitched to."

"And they can scare you," said Dick Groat.

It was Face, the scrawny relief pitcher who helped the Bucs get in after 33 years between pennants, who saved the victory for starting pitcher Vernon Law. The little right-hander got rid of Yankee power with two on and none out in the eighth inning by striking out Mickey Mantle, retiring Yogi Berra on a fly, and fanning Bill Skowron.

In the ninth, pinch-hitter Elston Howard tagged him for a two-run homer, but Face then ended it by getting Hector Lopez to hit into a doubleplay.

"We know they had power," said Groat, pivot man at short on the wrapup doubleplay, "but they strike so fast!

"You go into the ninth inning and you figure you've got it made. And then bing, bing, bing! you're in trouble."

The Pirates also were in trouble in the fourth inning, when Bill Virdon's running catch of Berra's long drive to right center saved a 3-1 lead. That catch, with Virdon reaching over Roberto Clemente as they bumped slightly, was the turning point.

Hardly any of the Yankees saw Virdon in the first inning, when he pulled a delayed steal of second that caught Yankee shortstop Tony Kubek napping. Kubek drew the error—after convincing the scorer that the responsibility was his, not Berra's—when no one was at second to take the throw by the Yankee catcher.

Pitching was the Yankees' problem. "It was the type of game, I figure, where if we get any kind of pitching we win it because we got four runs," said Manager Casey Stengel.

"I pinch hit for (Clete) Boyer in the second inning because I'm trying to get even. How the hell do you know in the eighth or ninth inning you're going to get a man on base?

"The best thing that club did was get my left fielder (Lopez) out and you know he's the best to hit to right field. But they get him out."

OSU Smooths Offense In Rough Practice

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio State's gridders worked on offense in a rough practice Wednesday as they ran against Illinois defensive patterns. Their first Big Ten encounter this season is with the Illini Saturday.

Navy Shows A Little Bit Extra After Last Victory

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP)—Coach Wayne Hardin says Navy found out in toppling Washington last week that "we have somebody else out there besides Joe Bellino."

The coaches also learned, he added, that this year's team has "a little bit extra" in effort and determination to win ball games that last year's team lacked.

"In a couple of the games we lost last year, we needed just a little bit that wasn't there," Hardin told a news conference Wednesday.

"It is this year. Take our stopping Bob Schloredt (Washington quarterback) on the 1-yard line when he was headed for a touchdown from the 5. Last year he would have made it. It's on plays like that you've got to have a little extra."

Hardin said the chief development of the Navy squad has been as a team. He noted that it started the year with one big star — halfback Joe Bellino — and he was regarded as about the whole show.

"But these other kids have really come along," Hardin said, "and you never heard of some of them before this year."

Mr. K Sticks Finger Into World Series

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Soviet Union's Premier Khrushchev is not content with busting up summit conferences — now he's sticking his plump finger in our World Series.

Indirectly, at least.

President Eisenhower, a keen baseball fan, had fully intended taking in at least a couple of World Series games—one here and one in New York—but had to cancel because of Khrushchev's pyrotechnics in the United Nations.

"The President was all ready to come but decided the situation in the U.N. was so tender he couldn't take the time off," said Commissioner Ford Frick today.

The commissioner said he had received no requests from the barnstorming presidential candidates—Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Sen. John F. Kennedy — for Series seats.

"I know the vice president is an avid fan and Jack Kennedy may be one also," Frick said, "but both probably are staying away for fear of being accused of using the Series as a publicity prop.

"I'm just as happy about it. I don't like to see baseball get entangled with politics of any kind."

The baseball boss' seat at Forbes Field—on the first row just to the left of the Pittsburgh dugout—is quite different from the one he occupied in the last World Series between the New York Yankees and Pittsburgh Pirates 39 years ago.

In 1927, he was a sports writer for the old New York Journal and it was his job to report the Yankees' four-game sweep.

The German phrase "Mein Kampf" means "my battle."

Ohio U. Rated No. 1 In Nation

By The Associated Press

Ohio University, located at Athens, Ohio, is the top team in small college football, an Associated Press poll determined today.

The AP, which has been picking small college All-America teams since 1934, is starting a weekly rating of the elevens in this division this year and to Buckeye state Bobcats goes the distinction of heading the first list.

Other teams in the top ten are Lenoir Rhyne of Hickory, N. C., Lehigh of Bethlehem, Pa., Massachusetts University, Witworth of Spokane, Wash., Texas A & I, San Francisco State, Western Illinois of Macomb, Muskingum of New Concord, Ohio, and Florida A & M of Tallahassee.

The teams were picked by an AP board of experts, made up of one man in each of the eight NCAA districts.

Of the honored ten, all sport unbeaten records except Texas A & I which was tied by Trinity of Texas. Trinity, in turn, held Texas A & M to a 14-0 score last weekend.

But beating the big brethren is not unheard of among these small giants. Ohio University already has polished off Dayton and Toledo, which are rated major colleges by the NCAA, and this week takes on Boston University. Massachusetts dumped Harvard, favorite for the Ivy League crown.

Potters Seek 4th Straight Win Friday

Amid all the grandeur of the World Series, East Liverpool and Bellaire St. John's will bring football back Friday night when they meet at Patterson Field.

Both teams will put identical records of 3-1 on the line, but the Potters will be looking for their fourth straight victory since losing to Massillon in the season's opener.

Bellaire was a 38-6 victim of the Potters last season, but shows some flashy backs and a four-year veteran at quarterback.

St. John's has victories over Jefferson Union, Wheeling Central and last Saturday defeated Bishop Donahue of Benwood. The lone setback was at the hands of Columbus Aquinas.

The key man in the Irish attack is Dick Cruciotti, a 5-7 speedster, who will run the team from quarterback. Cruciotti broke into the starting lineup as a freshman and has been St. John's quarterback for four years.

Rich Cavicchia is a doubtful starter for St. John's, but the 170-pound senior may break into the lineup. He was the leading ground gainer on the team last season, but was injured earlier this campaign and is recovering slowly.

The halfbacks will be Gary Craig a 135-pound sophomore and junior Mike DiNapoli at 150. Ray Sauritch (190) will get the call at fullback.

Again the Potters must face a heavier line, especially at the two tackle posts where St. John's can start a pair of 200-pounders in Bill McCreary and Dave Misencik.

John Zartney and John Babka, two 170-pound seniors, will be at ends with John DeBlasis (155) and Bob Jolly (160) will get the nod at guards. Stan Martinkoski (165) will go to center.

Coach Lou Venditti's well - conditioned Potters remain intact and for the fifth straight week the Potter coach will go with practically the same lineup that started the season over a month ago.

St. John's will be out to stop the passing of Kenny Cunningham who has hit the touchdown target five times and shows 493 yards in the air.

Cunningham has a variety of good receivers to throw to in fullback John Goodballet, halfbacks Joe Thompson and Allan Douglas and a pair of fine ends, Tim Archer and Mike Geon.

The district's three undefeated teams will attempt to keep their records clean as they play through another weekend of football.

Twelve games are on the slate for area high school gridders with seven Friday night and five more on Saturday.

Wellsville, moving up in the state ratings, will go after its fourth win of the season when Wheeling Central rolls into Nicholson Stadium Friday night.

Outside of a lone tie to Freedom, Wellsville has rolled over three opponents. Coach Ken Woods' team has only allowed 21 points to be scored in four contests.

Salem, ranked 13th in the state, puts its 4-0 mark on the line against Campbell Memorial in a game set at Salem.

Beaver Local, which shot into the No. 22 spot among Ohio teams, will mark time until Saturday afternoon when the Beavers and United tangle in an inter-county contest at Williamsport.

Beaver Local, with its brilliant halfback Ron McLaughlin, is favored to win its fifth straight game. The Beavers have rolled over Springfield, Local, Chester, Stanton Local and Salineville.

Opponents have scored only 28 points on Beaver Local in the four games.

Two district rivals, both winless in four starts, clash headon Friday at Hookstown when Newell and South Side meet. It will mean the first victory of the season for one team unless they would tie.

New Cumberland will have its hands full hosting Follansbee St. Anthony.

Two games on the Tri-County front Friday has rivals Lisbon and East Palestine meeting at Palestine and Leetonia visiting Minerva.

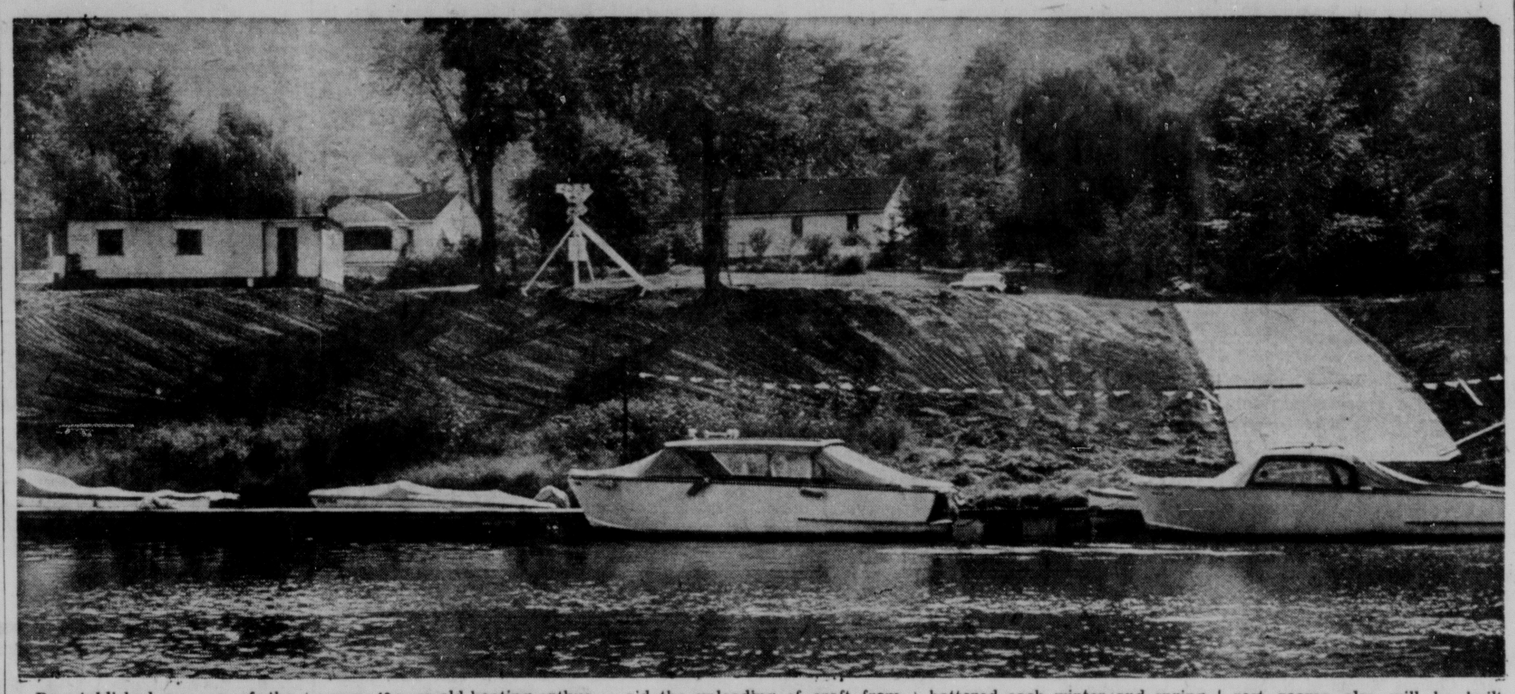
Chester won't play until Saturday night at Warwood as the Panthers look for their second victory in five starts.

Two rival opponents — Stanton Local and Salineville — hook up at Salineville Saturday afternoon.

Midland, still looking for that first victory for Coach Charlie Polce, visits Monaca Saturday night.

Columbiana goes to Canfield in another Saturday tilt.

Yacht Club Dresses Up New Home On West Virginia Shore



Re-established on one of the more picturesque sites in the Upper Ohio Valley, the East Liverpool Yacht Club is busy planning a series of major improvements to its new "home" on the West Virginia side of the Ohio River.

Under the leadership of Commodore John Falone of Glenmoor, 40-year-old boating enthusiast and World War II veteran, the club has moved its docking facilities across the river from the former site at the foot of Broadway on the Ohio shoreline.

Bulldozers have carved the tree-lined shore into a sloping, bowl-shaped area, bisected by a new blacktop and concrete ramp which extends into the water to aid the unloading of craft from trailers.

At the summit of the sloping riverbank lot — 308 by 290 — the club plans to construct a picnic area and parking lot in anticipation of next year's activities on the "Beautiful Ohio."

Moved down the river from Pittsburgh, the club headquarters is a converted, two-story house and in years past was battered each winter and spring by floods and ice floes. It now rests high on the river bank away from the seasonal moods of the river.

The entire moving project has cost the club about $4,000, Falone estimates, and the work is far from being over. Grass will be planted on the river bank slope and a sandy beach is being planned for swimmers. New rest rooms also will be built, Falone said.

Though the club has but 20 members at present, the docking facilities are capable of handling about 50 craft and will be enlarged upon completion of the Stratton Dam.

The docks will be dismantled in about two weeks to prevent damage from winter and spring floods.

Sick Little League Star Gets Advice From Mamie

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — "Do everything the doctors and nurses ask you to do and you will be pleased and surprised to find how soon you will be able to play baseball again."

The motherly advice came from Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower, the President's wife.

She wrote to Jimmy Kircher, 11, of Audubon, N.J., when she learned he underwent a delicate open-heart operation to have a hole in his right auricle closed.

Jimmy became a Little League champion despite his defective heart. He was a pitcher and outfielder on the team that won the 1960 Audubon Little League championship. He entered the hospital Sept. 27 — the day after the league's annual championship dinner.

Doctors said today he is doing well.

Mrs. Eisenhower congratulated Jimmy for his part in winning the championship and offered the best wishes of herself and the President for recovery. She noted that her grandson, David, is a Little Leaguer, "so we know how much it means to you to be able to play with this team."

Sick Little League Star Gets Advice From Mamie

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — "Do everything the doctors and nurses ask you to do and you will be pleased and surprised to find how soon you will be able to play baseball again."

The motherly advice came from Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower, the President's wife.

She wrote to Jimmy Kircher, 11, of Audubon, N.J., when she learned he underwent a delicate open-heart operation to have a hole in his right auricle closed.

Jimmy became a Little League champion despite his defective heart. He was a pitcher and outfielder on the team that won the 1959 Audubon Little League championship. He entered the hospital Sept. 27 — the day after the league's annual championship dinner.

Doctors said today he is doing well.

Mrs. Eisenhower congratulated Jimmy for his part in winning the championship and offered the best wishes of herself and the President for recovery. She noted that her grandson, David, is a Little Leaguer, "so we know how much it means to you to be able to play with this team."

Cornerstone Laying Set

Masonic Leaders In Ohio Will Appear In Ceremony

SALINEVILLE — A parade and a ceremony conducted by high-ranking Masonic lodge members of the state are slated for a cornerstone laying of the new temple of Lodge 348 at Jefferson St. and Route 644 Sunday afternoon.

The Salineville High School band and East Liverpool Knights Templar color guard will take part in the procession, along with lodge members and guests.

The parade will form at 3 at the present E. Main St. temple, according to Eugene Jarvis, lodge master.

Among those slated to take part are Colin B. Montis of Cleveland, grand orator, who will serve as grand master for the rites; Joseph Hickle of Smithfield and Clifford Powell, district deputy grand masters, who will serve as deputy grand master and senior grand warden.

Past district deputy grand masters will include George Wilson of Wellsville, who will be junior grand warden for the ceremony; Robert Longsworth of Augusta, who will be grand treasurer; Lynn Shotwell of Carrollton, who will be grand secretary; Russell Moore of Salem, grand chaplain; John Lamont of Youngstown, grand orator.

Ed M. Jenkins of Winona, grand tyler, will serve as grand marshal; James Irvin of Steubenville will be senior grand deacon, and John Pattison of East Liverpool, deputy education director, will be junior grand deacon.

In event of rain, the public ceremony will be held at the Salineville High School.

The lodge was organized in 1864, with A. H. Battin as the first worshipful master. It now has some 160 members.

3 Re-Elected In Fair Board

LISBON — William Maple of Hanover Township, Clem Laughlin of Wayne Township and Ben Weingart of Fairfield Township, incumbent members of the Columbiana County Agriculture Society, were reflected Wednesday at a meeting at the Fair Board's office at the fairgrounds.

Galen Greenisen, publicity chairman, said only 11 votes were cast of the some 200 eligible. Those who purchased membership tickets and reside in Columbiana County were eligible.

An organization meeting will be held in November and officers for the coming year will be picked.

Other members on the board are V. B. Lemley and Clarence Crosser of Center Township, Richard Stamp of Butler Township, P. R. Corey of Fairfield Township, Curtis Hively of Unity Township, Walter Johnson of St. Clair Township and Greenisen of Perry Township.

Boy Scout Group Plans Campaign To 'Get Out Vote'

Plans for a "get-out-the-vote" campaign Oct. 29 were outlined at a staff meeting of Cherokee Boy Scout District commissioners Wednesday night with Jack Clark, 929 Riverside Ave., Wellsville.

District scouts will distribute doorknob hangers to all homes, urging residents to vote at the November election.

Eugene Seeley, district commissioner, presided. A membership drive for all cub, scout and Explorer units was discussed. Any boy between 8 and 18 may join a unit and should contact the nearest his home.

There are 43 active scout units in the district. Don Smith of Chester, a commissioner, will meet with members of the Lawrenceville fire department tonight to set up a new scout troop. Any interested boy may contact a fireman.

A Cub Scout training session will be held Oct. 23, according to Robert Gray, executive, who said all cub units are urged to prepare displays for the event.

A district roundtable will be held next Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. at the YMCA. Clark served refreshments.

Boosters Set Meeting

SALINEVILLE — The Salineville Boosters Club will meet tonight at 8 (DST) at the Salineville cafeteria.

County Ends Road Repairs

LISBON—County Engineer Charles O. Snyder said today that the county road repair program for this season has been completed.

The work covered 125 projects, totaling 174.5 miles of oil treatments — surface seals and retread jobs in all 18 townships of the county in co-operation with the various Boards of Township Trustees.

A total of 908,000 gallons of liquid asphalt, complying with Ohio Department of Highways specifications, was furnished and applied by the Ohio Tar & Asphalt Co. of Canton.

Bids were received in the county commissioners office May 10 and the award was made for the material on the low offer of $143,231.27.

Some 32,408 tons of aggregate was hauled and spread with county-owned equipment by the county maintenance forces. The work started June 1 and was completed Wednesday.

A federal aid project in which the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads provides 50 per cent of the cost, is approximately 90 per cent completed on the Carbon Hill Rd. in Unity Township, Snyder said.

Music Parents Slate Food Sales At Games

About 25 attended a meeting of the Beaver Local Music Parents Association Wednesday night at the high school. Arthur Plate, president, appointed Homer Boyd chairman of the food concession for the high school basketball games.

Needs of the band and chorus were discussed in preliminary planning for the budget. Plans were made for serving the Trades and Labor Council dinner Oct. 22, and for the current membership drive.

The next meeting is Nov. 2.

Kit Carson Played Kit Carson In Pageant

PINEDALE, Wyo. (AP) — Kit Carson played Kit Carson in the Pinedale Rendezvous, a western historical pageant.

Pinedale citizens took parts of famous fur trappers and scouts in the ceremony.

Pinedale Postmaster D. C. (Kit) Carson was a natural to portray frontiersman Kit Carson.

Forest Festival Queen Crowned

ELKINS (AP) — Judith Bunn, a sun-tanned beauty poured into a fitted gown of ivory satin, becomes queen Silvia XXIV today in a coronation highlighting the 24th West Virginia Forest Festival.

The blonde Huntington lass, who captured the fancy of this banner-bedecked town as soon as she arrived yesterday, is being crowned this afternoon by Gov. Underwood, with top state and area officials in attendance.

Thousands of persons — many from nearby states who journeyed here for the colorful pageantry—flocked onto the spacious Davis and Elkins College campus to watch Miss Bunn accept the crown and sceptre which make her symbolic ruler of the colorful three-day spectacle.

Tired of bending to reach one thing or another in the kitchen? Cut off the top of an empty rectangular-shaped milk carton and put it on the counter when you are cooking. It will make a handy container for scraps to be disposed of and you'll have it there at hand's reach.

Cornerstone Laying Set

Masonic Leaders In Ohio Will Appear In Ceremony

SALINEVILLE — A parade and a ceremony conducted by high-ranking Masonic lodge members of the state are slated for a cornerstone laying of the new temple of Lodge 348 at Jefferson St. and Route 644 Sunday afternoon.

The Salineville High School band and East Liverpool Knights Templar color guard will take part in the procession, along with lodge members and guests.

The parade will form at 3 at the present E. Main St. temple, according to Eugene Jarvis, lodge master.

Among those slated to take part are Colin B. Montis of Cleveland, grand orator, who will serve as grand master for the rites; Joseph Hickle of Smithfield and Clifford Powell, district deputy grand masters, who will serve as deputy grand master and senior grand warden.

Past district deputy grand masters will include George Wilson of Wellsville, who will be junior grand warden for the ceremony; Robert Longsworth of Augusta, who will be grand treasurer; Lynn Shotwell of Carrollton, who will be grand secretary; Russell Moore of Salem, grand chaplain; John Lamont of Youngstown, grand orator.

Ed M. Jenkins of Winona, grand tyler, will serve as grand marshal; James Irvin of Steubenville will be senior grand deacon, and John Pattison of East Liverpool, deputy education director, will be junior grand deacon.

In event of rain, the public ceremony will be held at the Salineville High School.

The lodge was organized in 1864, with A. H. Battin as the first worshipful master. It now has some 160 members.

3 Re-Elected In Fair Board

LISBON — William Maple of Hanover Township, Clem Laughlin of Wayne Township and Ben Weingart of Fairfield Township, incumbent members of the Columbiana County Agriculture Society, were reflected Wednesday at a meeting at the Fair Board's office at the fairgrounds.

Galen Greenisen, publicity chairman, said only 11 votes were cast of the some 200 eligible. Those who purchased membership tickets and reside in Columbiana County were eligible.

An organization meeting will be held in November and officers for the coming year will be picked.

Other members on the board are V. B. Lemley and Clarence Crosser of Center Township, Richard Stamp of Butler Township, P. R. Corey of Fairfield Township, Curtis Hively of Unity Township, Walter Johnson of St. Clair Township and Greenisen of Perry Township.

Boy Scout Group Plans Campaign To 'Get Out Vote'

Plans for a "get-out-the-vote" campaign Oct. 29 were outlined at a staff meeting of Cherokee Boy Scout District commissioners Wednesday night with Jack Clark, 929 Riverside Ave., Wellsville.

District scouts will distribute doorknob hangers to all homes, urging residents to vote at the November election.

Eugene Seeley, district commissioner, presided. A membership drive for all cub, scout and Explorer units was discussed. Any boy between 8 and 18 may join a unit and should contact the nearest his home.

There are 43 active scout units in the district. Don Smith of Chester, a commissioner, will meet with members of the Lawrenceville fire department tonight to set up a new scout troop. Any interested boy may contact a fireman.

A Cub Scout training session will be held Oct. 23, according to Robert Gray, executive, who said all cub units are urged to prepare displays for the event.

A district roundtable will be held next Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. at the YMCA. Clark served refreshments.

Boosters Set Meeting

SALINEVILLE — The Salineville Boosters Club will meet tonight at 8 (DST) at the Salineville cafeteria.

County Ends Road Repairs

LISBON—County Engineer Charles O. Snyder said today that the county road repair program for this season has been completed.

The work covered 125 projects, totaling 174.5 miles of oil treatments — surface seals and retread jobs in all 18 townships of the county in co-operation with the various Boards of Township Trustees.

A total of 908,000 gallons of liquid asphalt, complying with Ohio Department of Highways specifications, was furnished and applied by the Ohio Tar & Asphalt Co. of Canton.

Bids were received in the county commissioners office May 10 and the award was made for the material on the low offer of $143,231.27.

Some 32,408 tons of aggregate was hauled and spread with county-owned equipment by the county maintenance forces. The work started June 1 and was completed Wednesday.

A federal aid project in which the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads provides 50 per cent of the cost, is approximately 90 per cent completed on the Carbon Hill Rd. in Unity Township, Snyder said.

Music Parents Slate Food Sales At Games

About 25 attended a meeting of the Beaver Local Music Parents Association Wednesday night at the high school. Arthur Plate, president, appointed Homer Boyd chairman of the food concession for the high school basketball games.

Needs of the band and chorus were discussed in preliminary planning for the budget. Plans were made for serving the Trades and Labor Council dinner Oct. 22, and for the current membership drive.

The next meeting is Nov. 2.

Kit Carson Played Kit Carson In Pageant

PINEDALE, Wyo. (AP) — Kit Carson played Kit Carson in the Pinedale Rendezvous, a western historical pageant.

Pinedale citizens took parts of famous fur trappers and scouts in the ceremony.

Pinedale Postmaster D. C. (Kit) Carson was a natural to portray frontiersman Kit Carson.

Forest Festival Queen Crowned

ELKINS (AP) — Judith Bunn, a sun-tanned beauty poured into a fitted gown of ivory satin, becomes queen Silvia XXIV today in a coronation highlighting the 24th West Virginia Forest Festival.

The blonde Huntington lass, who captured the fancy of this banner-bedecked town as soon as she arrived yesterday, is being crowned this afternoon by Gov. Underwood, with top state and area officials in attendance.

Thousands of persons — many from nearby states who journeyed here for the colorful pageantry — flocked onto the spacious Davis and Elkins College campus to watch Miss Bunn accept the crown and sceptre which make her symbolic ruler of the colorful three-day spectacle.

Tired of bending to reach one thing or another in the kitchen? Cut off the top of an empty rectangular-shaped milk carton and put it on the counter when you are cooking. It will make a handy container for scraps to be disposed of and you'll have it there at hand's reach.

District Apple Harvest Goes Into Markets

Ohio grown apples now dominate the markets, according to Richard Skinner, market information agent with the Agricultural Extension Service.

Local apples usually cost less than apples from more distant producing areas because local apples have less transportation cost involved. Locally-grown apples which are now on the market in good supply are Jonathan, Red Delicious, McIntosh, Cortland, Ohio Nonpareil and Wealthy.

The Franklin and Melrose are two new varieties that may be found on some markets. Both are good all-purpose apples.

Regardless of the variety of apple chosen, they should be clean, well-shaped and have good color for the variety. Apples may be graded to United States standard.

United States Extra Fancy is the best grade, followed by United States Fancy, United No. 1, United States No. 1 cooking and United States Utility. The most common grade of apples on the market have been graded United States No. 1.

The only practical difference between United States No. 1 and the fancy grades is the amount of color on the apple. A label of United States No. 1 on a basket or bag of apples gives consumers a buying standard under which they can reasonably expect a good product.

On the vegetable counters are many fall vegetables such as potatoes, sweet potatoes, squash, cauliflower and brocelli. All offer good buys as they are presently in season and in good supply.

Small turkeys are beginning to appear on the market in larger quantity. Small eggs remain the best buy when available.

Neutralist Laos Eyes Relations With Soviet

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — The neutralist government of Laos says King Savang Vathana has approved establishing diplomatic relations with the Soviet Union.

They are scheduled to go into effect in a week or two on a nonresident ambassadorial level. Premier-Prince Souvanna Phouma said, with the Soviet ambassador to neighboring Cambodia serving as envoy to Laos as well.

Will Visit Ohio

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Hiram Fong, R-Hawaii, will visit Ohio on a seven-state tour to launch a program aimed at getting people to campaign for Republican presidential candidate Richard M. Nixon. The Republican National Committee said Fong's program, which he used in winning election as a senator from Hawaii, tries to get people to campaign for Nixon among friends and acquaintances in the same occupation.

PTA Delegates Approve Buying Site For Building

CLEVELAND (AP) — Delegates to the 55th annual convention of the Ohio Congress of Parents and Teachers have authorized purchase of land in Columbus for a headquarters building.

PTA officials said, however, it may be two years before land for a building site is acquired. Approval of the plan to buy land was voted by delegates Wednesday.

Mrs. Wilson C. Storey of Cincinnati, addressing a group of unit legislation chairmen, urged them to work in support of the legislative program adopted by the convention Tuesday.

That program calls for more equitable distribution of state funds for education.

Mrs. Storey, a former president of the state organization and currently legislation chairman, said PTA members must study the financial needs of their own school districts as well as those of the state as a whole. The PTA members should seek solutions through the Ohio General Assembly, if necessary, she said.

"Find out if your community is getting enough," Mrs. Storey suggested. "If it isn't, do something about distribution procedures."

The convention closed with a banquet Wednesday night.

The state board of managers was to meet in a post-convention session today.

Writer's Father Dies

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Barnett Hart, 96, father of playwright Moss Hart, died Wednesday.

Latin Americans Get War Drill In Cuba, Roche Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—A former chief of Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro's parachute troops says Latin Americans have been trained in Cuba in guerrilla warfare.

The testimony was given to the Senate Internal Security subcommittee by Capt. Alfonso Manuel Rojo Roche, also known as Manuel Rojo del Rio. He appeared at a closed-door hearing last January soon after resigning from the Cuban armed forces.

In his testimony, made public today, Roche said guerrilla training courses for the Cuban forces are attended by men from several Central and South American nations.

Specifically, he listed the Dominican Republic, Nicaragua, Paraguay, Guatemala, Salvador, and Costa Rica.

"I don't know for certain, but I am sure that there are representatives of all the countries that have dictators where Fidel would like to move in," Roche testified.

He was asked if these men, after finishing the training courses, returned to their own countries. "Most of them, yes," he replied.

PTA Delegates Approve Buying Site For Building

CLEVELAND (AP) — Delegates to the 55th annual convention of the Ohio Congress of Parents and Teachers have authorized purchase of land in Columbus for a headquarters building.

PTA officials said, however, it may be two years before land for a building site is acquired. Approval of the plan to buy land was voted by delegates Wednesday.

Mrs. Wilson C. Storey of Cincinnati, addressing a group of unit legislation chairmen, urged them to work in support of the legislative program adopted by the convention Tuesday.

That program calls for more equitable distribution of state funds for education.

Mrs. Storey, a former president of the state organization and currently legislation chairman, said PTA members must study the financial needs of their own school districts as well as those of the state as a whole. The PTA members should seek solutions through the Ohio General Assembly, if necessary, she said.

"Find out if your community is getting enough," Mrs. Storey suggested. "If it isn't, do something about distribution procedures."

The convention closed with a banquet Wednesday night.

The state board of managers was to meet in a post-convention session today.

Latin Americans Get War Drill In Cuba, Roche Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—A former chief of Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro's parachute troops says Latin Americans have been trained in Cuba in guerrilla warfare.

The testimony was given to the Senate Internal Security subcommittee by Capt. Alfonso Manuel Rojo Roche, also known as Manuel Rojo del Rio. He appeared at a closed-door hearing last January soon after resigning from the Cuban armed forces.

In his testimony, made public today, Roche said guerrilla training courses for the Cuban forces are attended by men from several Central and South American nations.

Specifically, he listed the Dominican Republic, Nicaragua, Paraguay, Guatemala, Salvador, and Costa Rica.

"I don't know for certain, but I am sure that there are representatives of all the countries that have dictators where Fidel would like to move in," Roche testified.

He was asked if these men, after finishing the training courses, returned to their own countries. "Most of them, yes," he replied.
